AGED MAN DROWNS SELF IN QUARRY

Pride Leads Abram Neiswander, Bluffton, to End Own Life

SUICIDE, CORONER'S VERDICT

Body Found Floating in Water by Friends

Unable to find work, because of his advanced age, and too proud to make his financial straits known to dozens of friends who gladly would have assisted him, led Abram Neiswander, 79, retired stone mason to end his life, Friday.

His lifeless body was found at 3 p. m. floating face down in the water in the pit of the Bluffton Stone quarry, by Edward Worthington.

Neiswander's hat and coat were lying together on the bank of the pool.

Coroner A. C. Adams, who was called to view the body gave a verdict of death by suicide.

Her husband's act was a severe shock to Mrs. Carrie Neiswander, 75, the wife, who survives. Neighbors say that Neiswander has been despondent for some time past. But toward his faithful helpmate of years, he was his old cheerful self. She had no hint of the impending tragedy.

BLIND OBSERVATION

Neiswander left home early in the day telling his wife he was going downtown in Bluffton, and might not return for some time.

No one seems to have observed him on the village streets during the morning.

Driven by his despondent mood, he is believed to have sought the solitude of the lonely quarry, where he had spent the years of his youth and maturity toiling for others—to be cast aside in the end by age.

The deep quiet pool in the center of the pit offered the way out. Worthington wandering about

PARADE GETS UNDER WAY

Meeting at Memorial Hall to Climax Celebration

Lima is celebrating Armistice Day as it has not been observed since the memorable day four years ago when fighting between the great nations ceased and war clouds seemed to clear from the sky.

At 11 a. m. whistles blew and bombs burst in the air, calling attention to the fact that four years ago at that hour the war ended. For two minutes everybody stopped their work and silently offered thanks that peace had been brought about and that the shedding of blood had ceased.

Immediately after dinner the participants in the gigantic parade began to gather at the places appointed by the committee. Because of the great number of floats and the many organizations cooperating, the parade did not start until a few minutes after 1:30 p. m.

ROUTE OF MARCH
Route of march was south on Elizabeth-st. to Kithy-st, east to Main-st, north to North-st and west to Elizabeth-st, where the marchers will disband.

ONE KILLED, 18 INJURED IN STEAMER EXPLOSION

CHESTER, Pa.—One man was blown to pieces, one man is missing, two were seriously injured and 16 others were slightly injured when gas that had accumulated in the pockets of the Steamer J. N. Pew, in dry dock at the Sun shipyard here, exploded early today.

Acetylene torches which were being used by the 20 men working in the tanks, burning off rivet heads, fired the heavy gas that had been generated by oil.

George Hunter, 30, was instantly killed by the blast and Harry Schley, 26, is missing.

PHILLIPS TRIAL IS NEARING END

Murder Case Will Reach Jury Tuesday or Wednesday

(BY LANSING WARREN)

LOS ANGELES.—(United Press.)—Mrs. Clara Phillips, on trial charged with the "hammer murder" of Mrs. Alberta Meadows, today faced a demand by Deputy District Attorney Burk that the jury give her a sentence of death.

The case will probably go to the jury late Tuesday or Wednesday, it was said today, following opening of arguments late yesterday.

Burk, in a scathing denunciation of the defendant to the jury whereunder Clara paled visibly, assailed the defense plea of unwritten law as "un-American, un-Christian, and a figment of diseased imagination."

"Murder will run riot if the name of our state is besmirched by the success of such a defense," he said.

Immediately after Burk's address, the court recessed until Monday.

More Bodies May be Exhumed in Chicago Poison Case

"TWIN BLUEBEARDS" HELD

Two Women Charged With Murder of Husbands

CHICAGO.—(United Press.)—Police planned to exhume seven more bodies today in the investigation of the "Mrs. Bluebeard" poison plot involving two women.

Five bodies have already been dug up. Analysis revealed "large quantities of arsenic" in at least two instances.

Formal charges of murder were placed against Mrs. Tillie Klimmek and Mrs. Nellie Strumer Koulik, cousins, who police allege are responsible for the wholesale poisoning of husbands and relatives.

Insurance and fear of discovery were the motives for the poisoning which may number 12, police said.

Police have nicknamed the women the "Twin Bluebeards" because of their apparent unconcern over the charges against them.

LAST HUSBAND ILL
Both Mrs. Klimmek and Mrs. Koulik refuse to discuss the cases and show no interest in the exhuming of their husbands' bodies. The former is 47 and the latter 45.

Mrs. Klimmek was the first arrested after her last husband was found ill from arsenic poisoning. He is hovering between life and death.

AUTO TAGS WILL BE PRINTED ON CARDBOARD

COLUMBUS.—New automobile tags for the remainder of 1922 will be printed on cardboard because a fire which destroyed the tag department of the state penitentiary.

This announcement was made today by A. C. Snow, registrar of automobiles.

Snow said 326,000 tags for 1923 were damaged by the fire. Of these it is expected to salvage 200,000 by repainting.

WET VICTORY IN 1924 FORECAST

Congress Control Then is Predicted by Leader

WASHINGTON.—(United Press.)—Imbued with high hopes as the result of the "wet" gains in the congressional elections, liberal members of congress will hold a conference shortly after the start of the special session, November 20, to lay plans of an organized campaign for modification of the Volstead act to permit the manufacture and sale of wines and beer.

This was learned today with the return to Washington of Representative George Tinkham of Boston, one of the "wet" leaders in the house.

Tinkham predicted success for the "modificationist" movement after the 1924 elections.

"Tuesday's elections clearly showed," he declared, "that the people are near a revolt against the drastic provisions of the Volstead act. The liberal and sane element may prevail in the new congress which comes in next March, but if not then, we surely will win out after the 1924 elections when enough more liberal candidates will be elected to control the congress."

President Leads in Celebration of Armistice Day

DEAD ABROAD REMEMBERED

30,000 Yanks Buried in Europe Not Forgotten

WASHINGTON.—(Associated Press.)—On the plain granite block in Arlington Cemetery which a year ago became a new shrine to American ideals, blossomed today a wealth of flowers laid reverently there to commemorate the first anniversary of the homecoming of America's unknown soldier from France.

The utter simplicity of the scenes today, contrasted against memories of pomp and splendor of a year ago in the same beauty of setting, served to add new glory to that which is idealized in the blood of this humble soldier, shed in France, the high purpose that is Americanism.

Again President Harding made the pilgrimage from Washington in behalf of all his countrymen. But this time the message he bore was no spoken word but a simple wreath to rest on the great stone.

For the army Secretary Weeks accompanied the president and for the navy Secretary Denby.

There were many others who took occasion to pay homage to the unknown, among them General Pershing. The general could not go in person for he had been called to New York, but his aide bore the wreath.

FIRE AND FLOOD FOLLOW SHOCKS

Sea Advances Inland as Chile is Severely Rocked

TIDAL WAVE SWEEPS HOUSES

Extent of Damage Unknown as Communication is Cut

SANTIAGO, Chile.—(Associated Press.)—Severe earthquake shocks were felt in various parts of Chile shortly before midnight and again early today.

From various points in Central Chile came reports of houses falling and other damage.

A report from Antofagasta, north of Valparaiso, said that a tidal wave came in shortly after midnight, smashing small vessels and sweeping over the homes of fishermen and workers.

So far no loss of life has been reported but communication lines to many points are out of order.

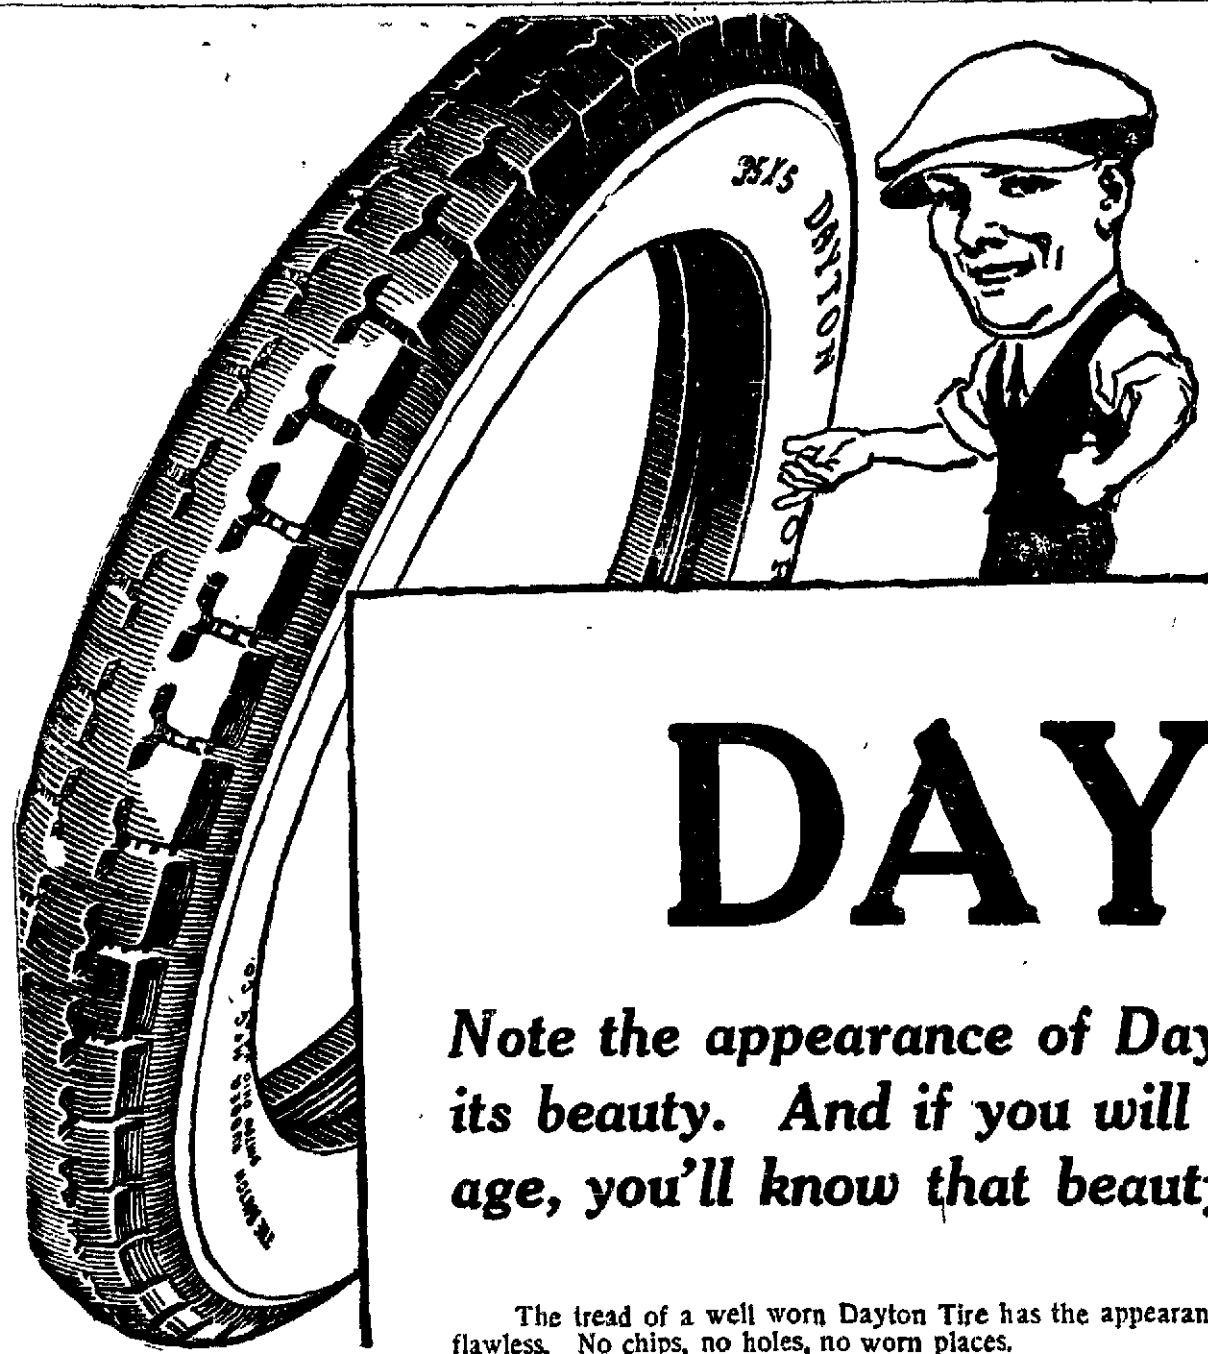

Reports received just before dawn said the shocks were continuing at Iquique, Unadisco and La Serena. The latter city was wrecked by a severe earthquake in 1907. The sea was rising there this morning.

WALLS BROUGHT DOWN
A despatch at 2:50 o'clock said a heavy shock lasting five minutes had just been felt at La Serena. It brought down many walls and telegraph poles, putting the city in darkness.

Telephone communication from La Serena to the port of Coquimbo was broken off shortly after 1 o'clock when the operator at Coquimbo left his post upon hearing a report that the sea was advancing inland. At that hour fire was reported to have broken out at Coquimbo.

DAYTON TIRES

Note the appearance of Dayton Cords on a car. You'll agree they add immensurably to its beauty. And if you will examine a Dayton Tire that's grown old in point of mileage, you'll know that beauty is more than skin deep.

The tread of a well worn Dayton Tire has the appearance of polished ebony—smooth flawless. No chips, no holes, no worn places.

This means service—long service and every other part of a Dayton Tire measures up to the tread. The tire looks good and stays good.

15,000 to 20,000 miles for Dayton Thorobred Tires is the rule and not the exception. 30,000 miles is not an uncommon occurrence.

The manufacturers of Dayton Tires have revolutionized the making of tires. They have learned how to build mileage into automobile tires.

When you buy Dayton Tires you buy mileage as well as good looks. You buy mileage you hardly thought possible while using ordinary tires.

Car owners everywhere have nothing but praise for Daytons, for in them they find at last the tire that makes them forget the bugbear of the road—tire trouble.

Why not join the rapidly growing army of Dayton Tire users and watch the miles pass by for ten, fifteen, twenty and even thirty thousand times with only the cost of one set of real tires—Daytons.

CHILD WANDERERS RETURN HOME

Boys Age 11 and 16 Found by Police in Kentucky

HAVE BEEN GONE WEEK

Brothers Left When Mother,
Father Had "Fallin' Out"

Paul Fleming, 16, and Charles Fleming, 11, Eureka-st., who disappeared from home one week ago, are back, in custody of juvenile court authorities.

With a sack of potatoes, nine cents in cash and a battered hatchet the two little chaps started out a week ago to make their fortunes.

Behind them they left a mother who was too ill to work.

The two boys were apprehended by police at Ashland, Ky., Thursday. They told the story of their week's wanderings.

Paul, the elder, had worked nights in a local cigar factory, to aid his mother, he said. Then they told him he was too young.

WOULDN'T TALKER MOTHER

"We just thought we'd go away, after ma and pa had a fallin' out," Paul told Ashland police, "then she wouldn't have to bother with us. She ain't very well anyway."

The two lads beat their way from Lima to Cincinnati over the B. & O., they told authorities on their return here. They purchased some rolls at a bakery with their nine cents.

Wandering into the freight yards the lads caught another freight and reached Ashland.

They were attempting to cross the river in a row boat when a friendly police officer spied them and told them to come ashore.

A wire to Lima brought the case to the attention of juvenile court officers. James Fleming, father of the lads, will allow juvenile court officers to handle the matter, police say.

"The boys are here," declared Frank Chapman, court officer, "but then case has not been disposed of. That is all I have to say."

LIKES ALL AMERICA

EXCEPT THE MEALS

MOUNT VERNON, Ia. — Lydia Coughlin, from Louisa, France, likes everything in America but the meals.

"They are terrible!" The indictment was softened by a laugh.

"The salad—fruit and greens all stirred up with mayonnaise—I do not like it!"

Miss Coughlin, a French student at Cornell college here, is studying for her B. A. degree and also is in charge of French conversation classes.

She admitted a high regard for Americans. And she likes Germany.

"But the English—they are very rude sometimes, rude to foreigners. I like you Americans better. You are more like us."

Then which there can be no higher compliment.

ITALY WILL PAY DEBT

TO U. S., PREMIER DECLARES

ROME — All agreements reached at the Washington disarmament conference will be ratified by Italy, Premier Mussolini told American correspondents today.

He declared the Italian debt to America would be paid but that payments are strictly related to reparations.

American loans to Italy are debts of honor," the premier declared. "Italy will never say she won't pay, but the question of payments are strictly related to reparations."

BUSINESS SUSPENDED

AS DELPHOS PIONEER

MERCHANT IS BURIED

Business was practically suspended in Delphos for an hour Saturday morning while funeral services for the late John Walsh, Sr., oldest business man of the city, was being conducted at St. John's Catholic church.

Merchants closed their stores between 9 and 10 a. m. Hundreds honored the memory of the pioneer by attending the obsequies.

A solemn requiem high mass was read, Rev. Rupert and Rev. Burkhardt of Delphos and Rev. Schmitz of Ft. Jennings officiating. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

Baker's Cocoa

is the ideal drink
for growing children

Not only does its delicious flavor and aroma appeal to the palate but it supplies the body with a considerable amount of pure, wholesome and nutritious food.

Children, owing to their almost ceaseless activity, frequently require as large an amount of nourishment as adults, and good cocoa is a valuable aid in the carefully arranged diet. But its quality must be good and no cocoa can quite so well meet the requirements of children, physicians, nurses or housekeepers as "BAKER'S."

CITY RAILWAY TRANSFER IS COMPLETED SATURDAY

Deeds for the property of the Lima street railway recently purchased from the Lima City Street Railway Co., from the Ohio Electric Co., thru Thomas Newhall, Philadelphia, have been recorded at the courthouse.

This completes the transfer of the property and the new company will start at once to rebuild the lines and renew the property, D. J. Cable, president, said.

New tickets will not be ready for several days and until they are the old rates will be in force. Other improvements and changes will await the completion of the inventory, Cable said.

Every provision of the franchise will be carried out to the letter, Cable said, and the lines will soon show a considerable improvement.

FERGUSON SEEKS FLOOR LEAD

Newly Elected Senator Would
Head Party Forces

Earl F. Ferguson, Van Wert attorney, elected as state senator from the 32nd district of Ohio, to succeed Claron L. Shafer, also of Van Wert, who served one term, has set his sights in the direction of the Democratic minority in the upper house of the general assembly.

Ferguson, a son-in-law of T. M. Henry, of Spencerville, former senator from this district, has been active in politics for a number of years and it is stated by party leaders that he will have considerable support in his effort to be chosen floor leader.

Shafer and Ferguson staged strenuous campaigns for several weeks. It was considered that Ferguson was under a handicap for the reason that Shafer is blind and had made a good record in the senate.

The unofficial majorities given the candidates in the various counties of the district are as follows:

RED CROSS DRIVE OPENS HERE

Workers Seek Membership at Annual Roll Call

"Join the Red Cross."

From the store windows, this message sends its appeal to the citizens of Lima. From wireless stations, the same message is being broadcasted and Lima workers are also making a personal appeal to every resident to "Join the Red Cross."

Armistice day, which has been selected by the national organization as the opening day for the annual roll call, saw a large number of workers start out on their annual pilgrimage to provide the funds with which meicy saves the injuries of war, tornado, famine and other catastrophes.

Besides the funds of the organization, which are always available to relieve suffering which follows accidents, floods, etc., the Red Cross has also done a wonderful work among the children in all parts of the country. Statistics of the local chapter for the past year show that over 1,200 patients have been cared for by Red Cross nurses and clinics.

The volunteer workers started out early Saturday morning and are planning, according to the general chairman, A. C. Calachob, to cover the entire city during the coming week.

The Red Cross Health center will be open during the drive but headquarters for the roll call will be located at the Elks home.

WELCOME READY

FOR PARTY

Boiderwolf to Arrive Here Tonight; Welcome in Charge

Preparations are complete for the welcome to be tendered Evangelist W. E. Boiderwolf who will arrive at Lima over the Pennsylvania Saturday at 9:21 p. m.

A committee will escort him to the Barr Hotel where he and his party will stay while they are in Lima.

The first rehearsal of the large tabernacle choir was held Friday night in the mammoth building which has been erected at the corner of Circular and Pierce-sts.

The call for singers was answered in a very pleasing manner by many singers from all the churches. Seats were arranged and passes given out.

The ushers have their duties well mastered and will have no difficulty in handling as many people as will be present.

There will be no afternoon meetings the first week. Prayer meetings will continue next week the same as the previous two weeks. The first meeting of the week will be held Tuesday.

NEGRO SOLDIERS LAUDED

AT ARMISTICE MEETING

Colored veterans of the world war were lauded by the Men's B'nai B'rith society, of the Second Baptist church, Friday night, in honor of Armistice Day.

Speakers, both white and colored lauded the deeds of negro soldiers who proved their worth against the enemy in France. The speaking was followed by a short program of music and entertainment.

Addresses of the evening were made by Col. John Harley, Major Frank Hume, the Rev. Franklin Spayde, Earl Robn, city commissioner, the Rev. L. R. Mitchell, and Dr. J. C. Bradford.

M. J. CULLEN DIES OF

COMPLICATED AILMENTS

M. J. Cullen, 514 N. West-st died at his home Friday evening of complications.

Funeral services will be at the St. Rosa Catholic church on Monday at 9 a. m. and burial will be at Gethsemani cemetery.

TRANSFERRED

Frank Muehlhoff former assistant manager of the De-ol-Wenmer Cigar Factory of Ottawa has been transferred to the Company's South Lima Factory.

What Is Castoria

CASTORIA is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrup. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Worms; it soothes and soothes, and by regulating the stomach and bowels, aids the assimilation of food; giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Comfort—The Mother's Friend.

It was only after years of research in the fields of herbs and roots for a combination of purely vegetable matter that would have all the virtues of Castor Oil, without its disagreeable, nauseating properties, especially when used for infants or children, that the formula used in Fletcher's Castoria was found, and which for over 30 years has proven its worth. Try it. (Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Dr. J. C. Fletcher.)

CUT IN RAIL RATES

Applications of Roads Turned Down by I. C. C.

WASHINGTON. — (Associated Press) — Applications of transcontinental railroads for authority to decrease rates to and from Pacific coast terminals on traffic originating east of the Rocky Mountains or destined therefore, were denied today by the interstate commerce commission.

The railroads had declared the reduction was necessary to enable them to meet coast to coast competition of steamship lines. Practically all commodities included in the commerce from the Pacific coast were covered in the railroads' application.

The Southern Pacific railroad, however, was authorized to reduce rail and water rates on certain commodities produced in California and destined to the Atlantic coast via Galveston and the Gulf of Mexico steamship lines.

This will allow the Southern Pacific and steamship lines to make a joint rate of 70 cents per 100 pounds on the coast to coast movement of asphalt, canned goods and rice and 80 cents on dried fruits, even though rates for shorter distances over the same route may be higher.

The same company was authorized to maintain similar rates on sulphur moving from Louisiana and Texas to Pacific coast ports.

Elizabeth screamed at what she saw when she entered the room on the roof.

'43 Years Old And Head Over Heels In Love!

" . . . He showed her his spacious office, back of the little cabinet which was to be her room. It took her breath—its size, the silk and silver; not at all like any law office which she had ever imagined. She bubbled and twinkled over it, prowling around delightedly. And the view from the broad windows took her breath again.

"She and Harwood stood beside one of them looking out at the great view—roofs, roofs, roofs, of all sorts and at all heights, under a haze of smoke which seemed an emanation of enormous energy, millions of people toiling. He pointed out various recognizable objects. She stared her eyes full.

"Her eyes were full of the view as she presently turned to the handsome man beside her. Of course, he hadn't made that smoky immensity beyond the window. But he was one of those who had made it and to whose will it answered—one of the masters of these cluttered, piled up kingdoms of the earth!

"She was not likely to withhold her admiration. Her shining eyes, full of the great view, did not withhold admiration now. With a sudden, heady leap of the blood Harwood felt that he could almost take her into his arms now—almost—almost!"

"The boys are here," declared Frank Chapman, court officer, "but their case has not been disposed of. That is all I have to say."

LIKES ALL AMERICA
EXCEPT THE MEALS

MOUNT VERNON, Ia. — Lydie Coughlin, from Louze, France, likes everything in America but the meals. "They are terrible!" The indignant was softened by a laugh.

"The salad—fruit and greens all stirred up with mayonnaise—I do not like it!"

Ms. Coughlin, a French student at Cornell college here, is studying for her B. A. degree and also is in charge of French conversation class.

She admitted a high regard for Americans. And she likes Germany. "But the English—they are very rude sometimes, rude to foreigners. I like you Americans better. You are more like us."

Then which there can be no higher compliment.

ITALY WILL PAY DEBT
TO U. S., PREMIER DECLARES

ROME — All agreements reached at the Washington disarmament conference will be ratified by Italy, Premier Mussolini told American correspondents today.

He declared the Italian debt to America would be paid but that payments are strictly related to reparations.

American loans to Italy are debts of honor," the premier declared. "Italy will never say she won't pay, but the question of payments are strictly related to reparations."

BUSINESS SUSPENDED
AS DELPHOS PIONEER
MERCHANT IS BURIED

Business was practically suspended in Delphos for an hour Saturday morning while funeral services for the late John Walsh, Sr., oldest business man of the city, was being conducted at St. John's Catholic church.

Merchants closed their stores between 9 and 10 a. m. Hundreds honored the memory of the pioneer by attending the obsequies.

A solemn requiem high mass was read, Rev. Rupert and Rev. Burkhardt of Delphos and Rev. Schmitt of Ft. Jennings officiating. Interment was made in St. John's cemetery.

Baker's Cocoa
is the ideal drink
for growing children

Not only does its delicious flavor and aroma appeal to the palate but it supplies the body with a considerable amount of pure, wholesome and nutritious food.

Children, owing to their almost ceaseless activity, frequently require as large an amount of nourishment as adults, and good cocoa is a valuable aid in the carefully arranged diet. But its quality must be good and no cocoa can give as well as the requirements of children, physician, nurse or housekeeper as "BAKER'S."

CITY RAILWAY TRANSFER IS COMPLETED SATURDAY

Deeds for the property of the Lima street railway recently purchased from the Lima City Street Railway Co., from the Ohio Electric Co., thru Thomas Newhall, Philadelphia, have been recorded at the courthouse.

This completes the transfer of the property and the new company will start at once to rebuild the lines and renew the property, D. J. Cable, president, said.

New tickets will not be ready for several days and until they are the old rates will be in force. Other improvements and changes will await the completion of the inventory, Cable said.

Every provision of the franchise will be carried out to the letter, Cable said, and the lines will soon show a considerable improvement.

FLOOR LEAD

Newly Elected Senator Would
Head Party Forces

Earl F. Ferguson, Van Wert attorney, elected as state senator from the 32nd district of Ohio, to succeed Claron L. Shafer, also of Van Wert, who served one term, has set his sights in the direction of the goal of becoming floor leader of the Democratic minority in the upper house of the general assembly.

Ferguson, a son-in-law of T. M. Berry, of Spencerville, former senator from this district, has been active in politics for a number of years and it is stated by party leaders that he will have considerable support in his effort to be chosen floor leader.

Shafer and Ferguson staged strenuous campaigns for several weeks. It was considered that Ferguson was under a handicap, for the reason that Shafer is blind and had made a good record in the senate.

The unofficial majorities given the candidates in the various counties of the district are as follows:

Van Wert-co 521	345
Allen-co 672	174
Paulding-co 672	174
Defiance-co 939	301
Williams-co 939	301

KU KLUX KLAN IS DENOUNCED

Resolution Condemning Organization Passed by Lima Post

Activities of the Ku Klux Klan, which is said to be operating secretly in Allen-co and has shown its hooded head in Hardin-co, was condemned by a resolution passed by the Lima Post, Friday night.

Attention was called to the activities of the mysterious order by R. R. Trubey, assistant prosecuting attorney, who declared that Klan was working in Allen-co.

Trubey denounced the purpose and aims of the organization which he said were to overthrow and supplant legislative and judicial procedure to accomplish its aims.

He lauded the Legion as the one and only American organization representing all classes, conditions and creeds, in the battle for Americanism and good government.

A resolution introduced by Trubey, scoring the Klan for un-American practices and mob violence, was passed by a vote of the post.

FOCHT TO BE TURNED OVER TO FEDERAL COURT

Roy Focht, 28, 613 Heindel-ave., who was arrested by police on a charge of having an illicit still in his house, will be turned over to federal authorities, Chief of Police T. A. Lanker, announced Saturday.

Police who entered Focht's house armed with search warrant found a still and other equipment used in distilling strong drink. A quantity of mash, ready to be converted into contraband beverage was also found and destroyed.

Focht pleaded guilty when arraigned before Judge Emmett J. Jackson, and was held under $1,000 bond.

If the case is not referred to U. S. Commissioner C. W. Long, for action, Focht's case will be tried on November 14.

DELPHOS LEGION MEN TO HONOR DEAD COMRADES

All Delphos American Legion men have been requested by Commander G. L. McKenzie to report at headquarters Sunday in ample time to form a parade which will move at 2 p. m. for the cemetery, in honor of soldiers slain in the late war.

The ex-service men should be uniformed if possible, McKenzie asks.

RED CROSS DRIVE OPENS HERE

Workers Seek Membership at Annual Roll Call

"Join the Red Cross."

From the store windows, this message sends its appeal to the citizens of Lima. From wireless stations, the same message is being broadcasted and Lima workers are also making a personal appeal to every resident to "Join the Red Cross."

Armistice Day, which has been selected by the national organization as the opening day for the annual roll call, saw a large number of workers start out on their annual pilgrimage to provide the funds with which mercy saves the injuries of war, tornado, famine and other catastrophes.

Besides the funds of the organization, which are always available to relieve suffering which follows accidents, floods, etc., the Red Cross has also done a wonderful work among the children in all parts of the country. Statistics of the local chapter for the past year show that over 1,200 patients have been cared for by Red Cross nurses and clinics.

The volunteer workers started out early Saturday morning and are planning, according to the general chairman, A. C. Calacab, to cover the entire city during the coming week.

The Red Cross Health center will be open during the drive but headquarters for the roll call will be located at the Elks home.

WELCOME READY FOR PARTY

Beiderwolf to Arrive Here Tonight; Welcome in Charge

Preparations are complete for the welcome to be tendered Evangelist W. E. Beiderwolf who will arrive at Lima over the Pennsylvania Saturday at 9:21 p. m.

A committee will escort him to the Barr Hotel where he and his party will stay while they are in Lima.

First rehearsal of the large tabernacle choir was held Friday night in the mammoth building which has been erected at the corner of Circular and Pierce-sts.

The call for singers was answered in a very pleasing manner by many singers from all churches. Seats were arranged and passes given out.

The ushers have their duties well mastered and will have no difficulty in handling as many people as will be present.

There will be no afternoon meetings the first week. Prayer meetings will continue next week the same as the previous two weeks. The first meeting of the week will be held Tuesday.

NEGRO SOLDIERS LAUDED
AT ARMISTICE MEETING

Colored veterans of the world war were feted by the Men's Finance society, of the Second Baptist church, Friday night, in honor of Armistice Day.

Speakers, both white and colored, lauded the deeds of negro soldiers who proved their worth against the enemy in France. The speaking was followed by a short program of music and entertainment.

Addresses of the evening were made by Col. John Harley, Major Frank Hume, the Rev. Franklin Spayde, Earl Rohm, city commissioner, the Rev. L. R. Mitchell, and Dr. J. C. Bradford.

M. J. CULLEN DIES OF COMPLICATED AILMENTS

M. J. Cullen, 514 N. West-st died at his home Friday evening of complications.

Funeral services will be at the St. Rose Catholic church on Monday at 9 a. m., and burial will be at Gethsemani cemetery.

Frank Muehlhoff former assistant manager of the Deisel-Werner Cigar Factory of Ottawa has been transferred to the Company's South Lima Factory.

ENDS COLDS

Try drinking lemonade if you want to get rid of your cold in a hurry. It is a hard-finished drink. Just add a tablespoon of plain, ordinary sugar to a quart of lemonade and drink a glass every hour for five or six hours. Do this today—and tomorrow your cold will be gone.

The success of the large-lemonade is due to the fact that it gives the cold germs clear out of the system, thus bringing quick, lasting relief.

Contains no quinine, aspirin or other harmful drugs. Can be taken with perfect safety by children as well as adults.

You can get powdered large of C. M. Hunter. The cost is small and it seldom fails to break the worst cold.

What is Castoria

CASTORIA is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drogs and Soothing Syrup. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Worms; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the stomach and bowels, aids the assimilation of food, giving healthy and natural sleep. The Children's Comfort—The Mother's Friend.

It was only after years of research in the fields of herbs and roots for a combination of purely vegetable matter that would have all the virtues of Castor Oil, without its disagreeable, nauseating properties, especially when used for infants or children, that the formula used in Fletcher's Castoria was found, and which for over 30 years has proven its worth. Try it.

CUT IN RAIL RATES IS REFUSED

Applications of Roads Turned Down by I. C. C.

WASHINGTON. — (Associated Press).—Applications of transcontinental railroads for authority to decrease rates to and from Pacific coast terminals on traffic originating east of the Rocky Mountains or destined therefore, were denied today by the interstate commerce commission.

The railroads had declared the reduction was necessary to enable them to meet coast to coast competition of steamship lines. Practically all commodities included in the commerce from the Pacific coast were covered in the railroads' application.

The Southern Pacific railroad, however, was authorized to reduce rail and water rates on certain commodities produced in California and destined to the Atlantic coast via Galveston and the Gulf of Mexico steamship lines.

This will allow the Southern Pacific and steamship lines to make a joint rate of 70 cents per 100 pounds on the coast to coast movement of asphalt, canned goods and rice and 80 cents on dried fruits, even though rates for shorter distances over the same route may be higher.

The same company was authorized to maintain similar rates on sulphur moving from Louisiana and Texas to Pacific coast points.

Elizabeth screamed at what she saw when she entered the room on the roof.

"43 Years Old And Head Over Heels In Love!"

"... He showed her his spacious office, back of the little cabinet which was to be her room. It took her breath—its size, the silk and silver; not at all like any law office which she had ever imagined. She bubbled and twinkled over it, prowling around delightedly. And the view from the broad windows took her breath again.

"She and Harwood stood beside one of them looking out at the great view—roofs, roofs, roofs, of all sorts and at all heights, under a haze of smoke which seemed an emanation of enormous energy, millions of people toiling. He pointed out various recognizable objects. She stared her eyes full.

"Her eyes were full of the view as she presently turned to the handsome man beside her. Of course, he hadn't made that smoky immensity beyond the window. But he was one of those who had made it and to whose will it answered—one of the masters of these cluttered, piled up kingdoms of the earth!

"She was not likely to withhold her admiration. Her shining eyes, full of the great view, did not withhold admiration now. With a sudden, heady leap of the blood Harwood felt that he could almost take her into his arms now—almost—almost!"

—From "The Room on the Roof."

BIEDERWOLF GREETED BY HUNDREDS WHEN HE ARRIVES FOR CAMPAIGN

Huge Building Awaits Thousands Anxious to Hear Spiritual Messages—Services Will Continue Six Weeks

Lima, Allen-co, and the district for miles around will give itself over to religion beginning Sunday night. Gigantic meetings which will include every individual who is desirous of turning his attention to things spiritual, will be the rule for a period of six solid weeks.

The opening gun in a campaign to bring an important spiritual message to people in this vicinity was the arrival of the Tabernacle party over the Pennsylvania at 9:21 Saturday night.

By 9 o'clock the crowd had started to assemble at the depot to await the coming of Dr. W. E. Biederwolf, evangelist.

A special squad of city police were assigned to keep the people in order. By the time the train came in, a large crowd of enthusiastic men and women were collected under the leadership of R. J. Platte. They were formed in two lines of welcome for the evangelistic party.

Included in the reception committee were Mayor Harold Cunningham, City Manager Bingham, Manager J. Kenneth Johnson of the Chamber of Commerce and J. E. Norton, manager of the Better Business Bureau.

The greeting at the station was of an informal nature. Rev. Warren L. Steeves, general chairman of the Evangelistic Campaign, introduced Dr. Biederwolf and party to the Lima crowd who were waiting eagerly to become acquainted with them.

ACCOMPANIED BY COMMITTEE
After the greeting, the party was accompanied by R. J. Platte, Rev. Warren L. Steeves and others of the committee to the Barr Hotel where they will make their home while they are in Lima.

Preparations for the opening meeting of the campaign are practically complete. Promptly at 7 p. m. the opening assembly will be called to order. A mammoth crowd is expected to storm the doors of the tabernacle at Pierce and Circular streets.

Only details remain to be ironed out before the opening anthem is sung by the huge assembly of vocalists organized for the occasion. The two choirs will rehearse Sunday afternoon. Ushers will receive their last instructions and everything will be made ready for the opening.

The young people of the city will congregate at the Grace M. E. church Sunday at 6 p. m. and march to a body to the tabernacle where they will have seats reserved. OPENS AT 7 P. M.

At 7 p. m. the meeting will be opened by music from both choirs. Roland B. McKesell, chairman of the music committee will then introduce John Ross Reed, the musical director who comes with the Biederwolf party.

Mayor Harold Cunningham, J. E. Norton, and Glenn C. Webb will each make short addresses in behalf of the people of Lima. Rev. W. H. Howard, president of the Ministerial Alliance, and Rev. Bruce Jacobs, president of the Federal Council of Churches will deliver short addresses of welcome. Immediately following the talks, Rev. Warren L. Steeves, general

HUNDREDS ARE KILLED BY QUAKE

CITY HONORS
WAR HEROES

Thousands Pay Respects to Soldiers Who Won for Democracy

Lima and Allen-co demonstrated clearly Saturday that they have not forgotten the lessons taught during the war and that the sacrifice made by many thousands of American soldiers has not been for naught.

Unnumbered thousands lined the course taken by the parade and cheered the patriotic and fraternal organizations as they pictured the events which mean so much to every loyal citizen.

Several hundred more gathered at Memorial Hall Saturday night to honor the soldier dead and to echo the new spirit of Americanism as voiced by Colonel Edward Orton, Jr., of Co. B.

PARADE PERFECT
Every detail of the parade was carried out as scheduled. The weatherman cooperated and thru the efforts of a hardworking committee headed by J. W. Beall the beauty and dignity of the cavalcade was of the highest order.

First came Colonel John Harley and his aides, followed by the Lima police force. Then came the American Legion Drum Corps leading the several hundred ex-service men from Lima and the surrounding towns.

"The Greatest Mother in the World" was the title of the Red Cross float in which the picture so well remembered from war days was portrayed and which in the estimation of many was the most beautiful float in the parade, followed the ex-service men.

Other features of the parade were the ex-service women, alumnae and nurses of the City and St. Rita's hospitals, Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion, the infantry and artillery companies, colored band and ex-service men, Salvation Army float and the Salvation Army marching band.

WOMEN REPRESENTED
In the second division was the G. A. R. veterans, the Woman's Relief Corps and Ladies of the G. A. R. Daughters of the American Volunteers, K. of C. float and marching club with candy kisses being thrown from the K. of C. float, the Child Welfare float, the U. C. T. marching club, the Royal Neighbors float, the Y. M. C. A. float, the Elks float with the white elks driven by a Salvation Army lassie, the Elks band and marching club.

Flores of the Garford Motor Truck Co., the Solar Refining Co., the Lima Locomotive Co., and other manufacturing companies pictured the tanks and other implements of warfare. They were separated by the Lady Macabees float, the U. C. T. marching club, the Royal Neighbors float, the Y. M. C. A. float, the Elks float with the white elks driven by a Salvation Army lassie, the Elks band and marching club.

Members of Bonar Law's cabinet were required to remain in London or vicinity over the week-end, ready to participate in a "war session" if startling reports from the Near East were officially confirmed.

All direct communications with Constantinople is interrupted. Sporadic official dispatches are coming thru in roundabout ways, greatly delayed, while press dispatches are most irregular.

Drawing Cartoons
Of Judge Costly

DETROIT — (United Press) — Ray Newberry, 18, of Walkerville, Ont., convicted and sentenced Friday to three years in Kingston on a prohibition violation charge, was recalled to the courtroom Saturday and given an additional three years, because he drew cartoons of Ontario Supreme Court Justice Lennox on the walls of his cell during the night.

TRIBUTE PAID TO UNKNOWN DEAD

President Harding Heads Pilgrimage to Arlington Cemetery

WASHINGTON — (United Press) — From early dawn to dusk, a pilgrimage of distinguished officials of Washington paid homage at the grave of the unknown soldiers here of the World War, buried on the heights of Arlington Cemetery.

Soon after the sunup, President Harding accompanied by Secretary of War Weeks, and Secretary of the Navy Denby, placed a wreath of roses and chrysanthemums on the tomb of the great unknown.

All day long other pilgrimages were made to the cemetery and other wreaths were heaped upon the tomb, the simple ceremony this year which is expected to set a precedent for all time to come was contrasted by those who looked on with the momentous demonstration last year, when the great military leaders of America's allies in the war had joined the massive throng which gathered in the amphitheater to pay tribute to the unknown soldier on his return from the battlefields of France.

As the presidential party departed from the cemetery it passed near the field of white marble headstones marking the last resting place of 5,193 soldiers of the World War.

ARMISTICE DAY PRUNAM
IS PLANNED AT KENTON

Armistice Day will be celebrated in Kenton Sunday with a mass meeting in the state armory, preceded by a parade.

Churches of the city will not hold morning services and will co-operate in making the meeting at the armory a success. Paul Herbert, Columbus war veteran, will be the principal speaker of the day.

FIRE RAZES
FARM HOME

ADA, (Special) — Their supper interrupted by the sight of flames bursting from a corner of the barn on their farm, eight members of the C. J. Hinkle family, residing near here, rushed outside to watch both the barn and the house they had just vacated, go up in flames, Saturday night.

Loss, it is estimated will exceed $15,000.

FIRE RAZES
FARM HOME

Family Leaves Supper to See Buildings Consumed By Flames

Origin of the fire is a mystery. The first the family knew of it was when a sight of the flames halted them on their way to bed.

SPREADS TO HOUSE
A moment after they had formed a bucket brigade in an effort to keep the fire from spreading, the entire barn filled with tons of dry hay enveloped in flames.

The house, located but a few feet from the barn caught fire easily. Heat was so intense that attempts to check the blaze were frustrated.

Members of the family were soon joined by neighbors from miles around who had been attracted by the fire.

Despite the intense heat, they managed to save a portion of the furniture of the house.

Neighbors provided lodging for the Hinkle family until further arrangements can be made.

The fire loss is partially covered by insurance.

ALLEN-CO VOITURE HOLDS
PROMENADE; 25 INITIATED

Members of the Society of "40 Hommes et 8 Chevaux" held the initial promenade of Allen-co Voiture, No. 386 in Stein hall Saturday night, 25 new voyagers being initiated into the organization.

The full ritual of the society, which is organized within the ranks of the American Legion, was put on for the first time in the county.

Initiates were led roped together thru the streets to the hall, headed by the Legion drum and bugle corps.

After the initiation, a banquet followed by vaudeville acts was enjoyed at the Elks Home.

The organization takes its name from the legend on the tiny French box cars in which all doughboys were transported while overseas.

Willbur DeWeese is chef de gare and Don Ashton chef de train, of the order.

Bag Of Diamonds
Just Small Loss

DETROIT, Mich. — (United Press) — Making small of his loss Saturday of a $800 bag of diamonds stolen by an alleged "double," Nathan Bayliss, New York jewelry salesman, refused to lay a charge against the man who so closely resembled him. He left for Southern states with his remaining $125,000 trunk of diamond samples.

KLAN THREATENS
ONION GROWERS

Hardin-co Men Warned to Discharge Kentuckians

The Ku Klux Klan has again reared its ghost-like form in Hardin-co, after an interval of several days.

Threatening letters sent to onion growers in the vicinity of Alger have been renewed.

Oscar Greenwalt, manager of a 700 acre onion plantation operated by the New York Coal Co. on the Alger marsh, is the latest recipient, advised from Kenton state.

In a letter sent to him and signed by the Klan, he is ordered to discharge Kentuckians in his employ, or suffer punishment and perhaps death.

Greenwalt turned the letter over to federal postal authorities at Washington. Inspectors are expected to arrive in Kenton within a week to conduct an investigation.

The letter appears to have been written by someone in Kenton and was mailed in Belle Center, the post mark shows.

OTHERS THREATENED
Earlier in the week, Klan letters were received by J. L. Moore, L. G. Seymour, W. W. Rogers, of Alger and Bert Gilmour of "Nigger Island." They demanded the abolition of Kentuckian labor in the marsh.

Opinion in Kenton differs as to whether or not the letters received by the onion growers were actually sent by the Klan, or by individuals who are using the name to inspire terror.

Efforts made to discover trace of adherents of the so-called Invisible Empire in Kenton have failed. Organizers are said, however, to have visited the city shortly before the letters were sent out.

Feeling against the importation of Kentuckians runs high among residents of Hardin-co, it is stated. The laborers from the south trek north annually, bringing large families. After a summer on the marsh, they return south. Nearly 500 are said to be working in the county.

Citizens complain that many of them engage in the occupation of moonshining.

GARAGE PERMITS
Two garage permits were issued Saturday. Lisle Parminter will build one valued at $150 at 1125 Richlie-av and R. C. Gottfried will erect a structure costing $75, at 217 N. Baxter-st.

DEATHS MAY REACH 1,000

Northern Portion of Chile Is Devastated by Earth Tremors

SANTIAGO, Chile — (United Press) — The earthquake early Saturday probably cost a thousand lives.

From northern Chile ports came dispatches telling of more than a hundred deaths. These were caused by the tidal waves which swept in following the quake and were in addition to the casualties reported by La Serena and Coquimbo.

The Pacific, picked up by the shock and hurried inland, inundated Serena for more than four blocks. Sixty lives were lost in this one flood.

As previously reported from several points, whose families appear to have been lost in the disaster, buildings in Copiapo are said to have tumbled like nine pins in the tremor, burying sometimes several families at a time. Twenty bodies were recovered.

The quake was felt 1,500 miles to the southward, according to dispatches from that direction. Apparently there was little damage there, however.

NORTHERN PART IS DEVASTATED
(BY LAURENCE S. HAAS)

SANTIAGO, Chile — (United Press) — Northern Chile was devastated by an earthquake early Saturday. Already hundreds of deaths have been reported.

Tidal waves following the shock inundated the coast, wrecking hundreds of vessels, flooding towns and drowning many victims.

Cable telephone and telegraph communication is disrupted north of Valparaiso and no accurate estimate of loss of life or damage was available Saturday night. Fires followed in the wake of the shock, adding their horror to the devastation at Coquimbo, Antofagasta, Chanaral, Chaldern and other points.

Here at Santiago, sheltered from the worst of the shock, we have been unable to get accurate accounts as yet of the holocaust to the northwest.

SCENES OF TERROR
The shock was severe here and there were scenes of terror begging description before dawn as the streets became filled with frightened natives, many carrying household goods snatched at random. Lights went out suddenly following the first shock. This came exactly at 20 minutes past midnight and lasted two minutes.

The city was shaken. Buildings rocked on their foundations, some being damaged. We hurried to telegraph offices for information of the quake in other cities, only to find the lines largely disrupted. The first report came over the wires that Antofagasta had been destroyed. This

SPECIAL ELECTION MAY BE CALLED ON LEVY

RESUBMISSION IS NOW PLANNED

Bingham Sees Change in Sentiment on Measure

CITY CRAMPED FOR MONEY

Details of Economy Campaign Being Worked Out

Plans are on foot to call a special election to consider the approval of a two mill levy to take care of the city departments, C. A. Bingham, Bingham, city manager, declared Saturday.

It is understood that an organization is being formed to underwrite the $10,000 necessary to pay for the election if it is called as the city has not the funds available for that purpose.

Sentiment among the voters is changing, Bingham said, and daily the city commission are being stopped on the streets and told that had the full impact of the election been known the measure would have carried on November 7. Instead of being defeated by 875 votes in a total of 10,223.

SITUATION GRAVE
With police and fire departments reduced to a skeleton force and with other departments of the city government cut to the bone, the people of Lima are discovering that the city commission was not misleading them as to the gravity of the situation, Bingham said.

A survey of the vote cast for and against the measure shows that it met the stiffest opposition on the south side, where the commission recently ordered two big sewers built after the citizens had vigorously petitioned for them, it was said.

"It is the old story of the taxpayers desiring sewer and improvements, but not wanting to pay the cost when the bill is presented," Bingham said in reviewing the action of the voters.

Under the plan as now outlined, the departments supported by license fees and outside income will be little affected, but departments supported by taxes will be cut to fill the amounts to be received.

This will leave the office force, waterworks department, sealers of weights and measures and court officials as they have been, but will affect the police, fire and street cleaning departments. Members of the engineering department will not be affected until work paid for by bond issues is completed.

CITIZENS MAY AID
City officials are not pressing the state board of health for a decision on the sewage disposal plant, for the reason if the system was completed there would be no funds for its operation, Bingham points out.

To have the advantage of sewage disposal, clean streets, adequate lights, traffic and other policemen and fire prevention and extinguishing service money is necessary and until it is provided the services cannot be afforded, he says.

Many of the details of the economy campaign which has been forced upon the city will be worked out at a meeting of the city commission Monday night, it is believed.

At that time citizens may present a plan whereby it will be possible for the city to hold another election to obtain the money needed for the carrying on of the city's departments.

PIONEER WOMAN DIES HERE
Widow of R. P. Jones Succumbs at Son's Home

Jane Margaret Jones, 79, widow of R. P. Jones, pioneer hardware dealer in this city, died Saturday night at the home of her son, Robert P. Jones, 518 W. Spring-st., following an illness of five years duration.

During the past five weeks, her condition became critical. Physicians anticipated the termination of her life.

Mrs. Jones was born July 11, 1843. She married Thomas R. Jones, the former Lima hardware dealer, September 18, 1862, after which her husband entered business here.

Jones died in this city five years ago. His business was taken in hand by Robert P. Jones, the son at whose home the mother died.

Mrs. Jones was a prominent member of the Baptist church of Pomeroy, Ohio.

Funeral services will be held at the residence at 7 p. m. Monday night. Rev. Warren L. Steeves will officiate. The body will be accompanied to Pomeroy for burial, Tuesday.

MYSTERY SHOTS DISTURB SATURDAY NIGHT QUIET
Police were mystified Saturday night by reports of shots being fired somewhere between Nye and Baxter streets near the Ottawa river, a report to headquarters indicated.

Webb Harrison, desk clerk, off duty at the time, reported he heard the shots, followed by shouting. Investigation failed to reveal evidence to substantiate the reports.

GIG GASSER IS OPENED IN TAYLOR CREEK FIELD
Drillers on the B. & T. Oil and Gas company lease southwest of Kenton Saturday brought in the fourth gas well in the Taylor creek field, with an estimated flow of 250,000 cubic feet a day.

The combined production of the field is now upward of one million cubic feet daily, reports from Kenton state.

At present there is no sale for the gas, and the wells are capped.

MAINLY ABOUT PEOPLE

VICTIM OF ROBBERY

A. S. Bennett, N. Elizabeth-st., was notified Saturday that his son, C. S. Bennett, had been forced to the basement of the Medical Building pharmacy, Detroit and Westwood-aves., in Cleveland and the place robbed by two men, armed with revolvers. They secured $139 from the cash register. The men threatened to shoot Bennett if he emerged from the basement before they had time to make a getaway.

TREES TO AFFORD

Not alone for the men who gave their lives in the World war, but in honor of those who escaped from death in the maelstrom of the fighting over there, the conservation committee of the Federation of Women's clubs will plant an avenue of trees on the West-st. road.

This "Road of Remembrance" will begin at the south entrance to the state hospital grounds and will extend one mile north. As the trees grow and give shade and joy to future generations, it is the hope and wish of the members of the federation that the sacrifices of the honored soldiers may bring peace and brotherhood to the nations of the world.

Thursday, November 14, at 3:30 p. m., at the south entrance of the state hospital grounds, the memorial will be dedicated. The general public is invited. Any war mother desiring a means of conveying to the one of the dedication should telephone to Mrs. Thoburn Bowdler, Main 1059.

Police receive reports of stolen motor cars daily. Saturday night they received a complaint that was familiar. 20 years ago. A horse thief had made off with a bay mare, property of Orin Haplar, Elda farmer. The equine is blind in both eyes, the owner told police.

THIEF GRABS FUR COAT
While Mrs. Mary Van Grundy, 208 S. Central-av., was watching the Armistice Day parade in Main-st. Saturday, some one lifted a black fur cape from her shoulders, she told police. Value of the garment is $49.50.

BROTHERHOOD MEETING
Brotherhood of Bethany Lutheran church will meet Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. in the church. All men of the church are invited. Attendance.

AID RELIEF FUND
Local Greeks have forwarded thru The American Bank and Trust Co., $190 to the Near East Emergency Fund of the American Red Cross, for relief work in Greece. The committee expressed its appreciation for the assistance given them in raising this fund.

GIRL AND BOY
Mr. and Mrs. Herman W. Bowers, 734 Michael-av., announce the birth of a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Hill, 419 N. Pierce-st., announce the birth of a son.

FARM AVERAGE
Average production in Allen county as compared with that of neighboring Ohio has been charted by H. J. Ridge, farm agent. It shows that the average in hogs, dairy products, chickens and eggs and beef are higher in the county than in the district and that production of sheep and wool, feedable crops and wheat is below the average.

BRIDGE COMPLETED
The first of four concrete bridges being constructed across the Scioto river at Kenton, by the Roberts Construction Co. of Lima will be completed and formally opened Thanksgiving day. The structures cost approximately $80,000 each.

LIMA BOY HONORED
Word has just been received here of honors bestowed upon Daniel Page at the Howe Military Academy.

LEADERS SOUGHT BY PARTIES

Both Democrats and Republicans Seek New Chiefs

WASHINGTON.—(United Press).—Leadership is now the paramount question with both the big political parties. As a sequel to Tuesday's election both the Republicans and Democrats are demanding new leaders and a new type of leadership, realizing that the party that solves this problem best probably will win out in the presidential and congressional elections in 1924.

The Republicans want a "strong man" who can regain for his party the losses suffered in this year's elections. The Democrats are searching for a leader who can make the most out of the present trend in the party's favor and make it grow for the next two years. Neither party is satisfied with the leaders now in the saddle.

In the background as a scare, stand the progressives and independents who with good leadership might rise in power and unseat both the old parties. These groups are leaderless and are divided but their potential force is not questioned by the "best minds" in the two major parties.

The immediate problem of leadership centers in congress. In the house the Republicans will have to pick a new leader to take the place of the late Senator Charles McNary. In the senate, there are only two named candidates to date. They are Representative Longworth, Ohio, son-in-law of the late Theodore Roosevelt, and Representative Sidney Anderson of Minnesota, former bloc leader.

In senate, the Democrats must select a man to succeed Senator Underwood, who has announced he will step back into the ranks as a private because of ill health. Defeat of Senator Pomeroy, Ohio, and Hitchcock, Nebraska, leaves Pat Harrison of Mississippi, a rough and ready debater and a master of strategy, and Joe Robinson, of Arkansas, vigorous fighter and of magnetic personality, as the leading candidates.

REALTY ACTIVITY SHOWS INCREASE
Biggest Demand Is For Medium Priced Homes

Real estate activity is showing an appreciable increase now that the election has passed and is rapidly being forgotten, J. I. Motter, president of the Lima Real Estate board, said Saturday.

Most of the activity at the present time is centered in the medium priced home class and with the opening of the new year it is believed the transactions will reach unusual proportions.

Appreciation of values has been very slight to date and it is believed in the face of much new building the prices will not be much above present levels, although it is certain the bottom of the market has been seen, Motter said.

HOMES ARE SOLD
Sales of a number of homes have been announced by Lima real estate firms. Five homes have been sold thru the Motter & Green agency.

A Dutch colonial house on Garfield av owned by Mrs. Gail Yacobi has been sold to John P. McCallister. A new six room house on Fairview-av has been sold by Harry Zurembo to H. E. Myers who recently moved here from Celina.

Professor R. E. Offenbauer has purchased thru this firm a home on N. Metcalf-st from Henry Seiber. A W. High-st house owned by Walt Parmenter has been sold to L. L. Potter, who will remodel it. C. E. Benedict has also sold a house on Hazel-av to Ray Clark.

Transactions announced by the Elmer D. Webb Co. include seven homes of a total value of $33,000. They are: A five room cottage on Oak-st sold by W. E. Bayly to Harvey S. Davis; a bungalow owned by John A. Stalbacky on O'Connor-av sold to Fred S. Kepner; a six room cottage on Polk-st owned by A. H. Lewis sold to L. V. Fetter; a modern stucco on Metcalf-st sold to William Van Wemmer by James Killian; a modern bungalow on Fairview-av to C. Dewitt Shadaker by John J. Griffith; a modern semi-bungalow on Marion-av to H. E. Ludwig; and a residence on At-Land-av to Roy Daber by LeRoy Windle.

FARM CHANGES HANDS
Thirty acres of land on the Allen-town-rd was also sold during the week thru the Webb Co. by Mrs. J. C. Remager to Mrs. Olive E. L. Fritz. This property adjoins the Baxter farm and will be subdivided at a future date by the new owner.

Property sales announced by Michael & Finkel include a residence at 1160 W. High-st, sold to Wilbur Mummaugh and a bungalow owned by Frank Shumate at 135 S. Cole-st sold to Joe Cousins.

Leases made by the same firm include a store room in the Phoenix-bldg to Charlie's Coffee Shop for a term of five years and a building at 26 1-2 Public Square owned by Mrs. Annester, Des Moines, Iowa, to the Hoover Bond Co. for a term of six years.

Rise in values during the past 12 years on Elizabeth-st is shown by figures compiled by Michael & Finkel following the sale of the Colonial Hotel to R. J. Plate, Fred Cook and N. L. Michael. In 1909 the property was sold for $8,500, in 1919 it sold for $30,000 and during the past week it sold for $32,500.

GIRL SPRAINS ANKLE; POLICEMAN IS GALLANT
Plainclothesman Godfrey played the grand role of the gallant late Saturday night.

Miss Gladys McMillan, 1151 S. Metcalf-st., it was reported to headquarters, sprained her ankle while walking in front of the White Cafe on Public-sq.

Godfrey rushed to her assistance. He saw her safely home in a taxi, the report said.

KANSAS GOVERNOR-ELECT TO REPEAL INDUSTRIAL COURT
Lawrence, Kan. — Governor-elect Jonathan M. Davis Saturday night said his first official act will be to move for the repeal of the Kansas industrial court law.

The election of Davis was taken in some quarters as a repudiation of the industrial court law, passed under guidance of Governor Henry J. Allen.

"The first thing I intend to do as governor is to bring about repeal of the industrial court law," Davis said in an interview with the United Press.

CLEMENCEAU ON WAY TO U. S.

French Tiger to Make Speaking Tour of East

EXPECTED TO VISIT WILSON

Comes Here to Sound Out Public Opinion

(BY JOHN O'BRIEN)
HAVRE, France, (United Press).—George Clemenceau, upon whom his country turned its back in reaction against the treaty of Versailles, sailed Saturday on a mission of his own choosing, to win for America support and sympathy for France.

"The Tiger," mighty game hunter, has gone gunning for the biggest bag he ever sought, America's public opinion.

Strapped to his eyebrows, in a great coat, Clemenceau stood on the rear upper deck as the French liner Paris drew away from the pier, answered salutes and the roar of cheers from the throng that saw him off.

Brisk and energetic despite his 81 years, "The Tiger" was observed pacing the deck in earnest argument with fellow passengers as the vessel disappeared into the mist.

Clemenceau sails to engage in a speaking tour of the eastern states of States. He will present his "apologia" for Versailles, for the league of nations and "France in person."

GOVERNMENT IGNORED
"The Tiger" ignored the government's official greetings.

H. Lallemand, prefect of Le Havre, escorted the Paris to his official farewell.

"I came to salute you on behalf of the government," the prefect said.

"The government?" repeated Clemenceau, in exaggerated surprise.

In the name of the premier and the ministry of the interior," M. Lallemand replied.

Abruptly, "The Tiger" turned his back, took a few steps away from and shook hands with other officials and representative of the local war veterans' association. There may be a dramatic meeting when "The Tiger" reaches Washington.

He and Woodrow Wilson, who last met as members of the "big four" which drafted the Versailles treaty at Paris, may get together at the latter's home for a talk on the league of nations, which Clemenceau supports.

French officialdom takes little cognizance, officially, of "The Tiger's" voyage. They scorn openly at his attempts to come back as premier. But secretly they are said to be not a little worried.

Clemenceau has promised, however, that this is no attempt to "capture America" for his own purpose.

The former premier rode from Paris to Havre thru a driving rain Saturday morning, bundled in the front seat of a limousine, exposed to the severe weather, scornful of the stuffy interior.

ACTION IN HALL CASE HELD UP

Judge is Sought to Charge Grand Jury

NEW BRUNSWICK, N. J.—(United Press).—"We have evidence strong enough to charge the suspected murderer to trial for this murder and we now are only waiting to hear from Supreme Court Justice Parker with regards to charging a grand jury to find the necessary indictments," declared an official in close touch with the investigation into the murder of the Rev. Edward R. Mills Saturday night.

This official said that the telephone wires had been kept busy all day Saturday by Special Attorney General Wilbur A. Mott, in an effort to locate Justice Parker, who is somewhere in the south, enroute to New Orleans.

Mott has wired Justice Parker, asking him to call upon some other supreme court justice in New Jersey to charge the Somerset-co grand jury to find indictments against certain suspected person on the basis of evidence now in Mott's possession.

Mott was confident of solving the mystery, until he came face to face with the fact that the Somerset-co grand jury will refuse to find indictments on the basis of evidence gathered unless that body is specifically charged by a supreme court justice.

From present indications, it appears that Mott has obtained little more evidence than that which has already been gathered by Prosecutor Beekman, when Mott was called into the case.

DEFENSE ATTORNEY TALKS
Timothy N. Pfeiffer, attorney for Mrs. Hall, widow of the murdered minister, said Saturday night that the authorities could not arrest Mrs. Hall, unless they did so on the basis of false testimony.

"Mrs. Hall is innocent and has nothing to fear," he said.

Mott conferred in Newark Saturday with his detectives, James A. Mason and it was reliably reported that they decided to come here Monday and again summons a number of witnesses, who have already been questioned several times. Among them will be Ralph V. M. Goshline, member of the vestry in the Church of St. John the Evangelist, of which Dr. Hall was rector; Mrs. James G. Goshline, the "pig woman" who claims to have seen members of the murder group on the night of the tragedy; and Louis E. Geist and Barbara Geist, maids in the Hall household.

It was officially stated Saturday night that the authorities are convinced that Dr. Hall and Mrs. Mills were killed at the spot where their bodies were found and not murdered

FARM INSTITUTE LEADERS PLAN CONFERENCE HERE

'Farmers' Institute Leaders of the county will hold their annual conference in the Farm Bureau office Wednesday, H. J. Ridge, farm agent, said Saturday.

F. L. Allen, state institute worker, will be present and will give the leaders pointers on how to make their institutes more efficient and interesting.

Many institutes in the past have failed because the men in charge did not know the short cuts and methods which would make it a success, Ridge said. This conference will make such a situation impossible.

It is believed every farm institute official in the county will be present at the meeting and will help in making this year's program the best in many years.

and the uniformed P. H. C. organization.

In the last division were the P. H. C. float, the Lima fire fighting apparatus decorated with bunting, the ambulances, the floats of the Lima Sheet Metal Products Co., Green & Green Co., float and a number of unofficial floats.

Gold Star mothers were given a prominent place in the reviewing stand on the south-east side of the Public Square. City officials and a number of local men and women were also on the stand.

POPPIES SOLD
Poppies, symbolic of the fields where American soldiers fell and were buried, were thrust out the day by the Ladies Auxiliary of the American Legion.

Chief Mack, stationed on top of the Citizens bldg, was in charge of the bombs which were fired into the air at 11 a. m. and again at 2:30 p. m.

At the signal the parade, whose head had just reached Main and High-sts, stopped and the participants turned to the east for two minutes of reverence for the soldier dead.

Boy Scouts of the city, patrolled the line of march and held back the crowds which pushed and shoved good naturedly in their attempt to obtain a closeup view of the parade.

A Boy Scout band from Ottawa also lent color and interest to the parade. This was a last minute attraction obtained by the committee and proved very acceptable to the crowds.

"Americanism" is an undiminished word like soul, love, home and country, Colonel Orton told the audience at Memorial Hall Saturday night.

MAKES PLEA
"It is something which the people of the United States did not have until they entered the World War and it is a virtue which should not be allowed to decay," he said.

Obligations of the citizenship were outlined by Colonel Orton. Every citizen should be honest, healthy, a worker, thrifty, intelligent, willing to love and able to love.

A plea for respect for law and a true knowledge of the principles of personal liberty as compared with license were voiced by the speaker who pointed out that Americanism took all of these into consideration.

Need for the Americanization of Americans as well as the foreigners within our gates was shown by Colonel Orton who minced no words in telling what he thought of slackers and evaders of duty in the war.

Following the memorial service the K. of C., the Elks and the Laux halls were opened for dancing. Juddies and their friends spent the balance of the night at various entertainments.

Scarcely a building or a store was undecorated Saturday. In many of the store windows especially attractive displays were to be seen. One of the most interesting was that by the American Legion in the J. W. Rowlands windows. A field gun was also stationed near the curb in front of the store.

SALE OF POPPIES NETS $750 FOR LEGION BODIES
An approximate total of $750 was realized from the sale of poppies, conducted jointly Saturday by the "America," accredited the nation'siliary of Post No. 96.

Mary Catherine Campbell, "Miss America," accredits the nation's "customer" girl appearing at a local vaudeville house, assisted materially in the sale, disposing of nearly 1,000 poppies.

Receipts from the sale will be divided equally between the Legion and the Auxiliary.

BOY FELL BY AUTO SUSTAINS BROKEN LEG
Kenneth Davis, 10, of 731 Oak-st., sustained a broken leg Saturday when he was knocked down at the corner of Elizabeth and Spring-aves by an automobile driven by M. M. Hefner, 1353 S. Atlantic-av.

The streets were congested with traffic, due to the Armistice Day celebration and the boy ran in front of the machine, according to Hill One of the auto wheels passed over his leg.

An ambulance was called and he was rushed to St. Rita's hospital.

Somewhere else and carried to the spot beneath the crabapple tree on the Phillips farm.

"There are a good many things about the case about which we entertain doubts," an official said, "but there is no doubt in the mind of any of us that the couple were killed where the bodies were found."

TABERNACLE READY FOR RELIGIOUS RALLY

Rev. Biedewolf Is Called World's Greatest Preacher

Famous in Religious Field; Compared With Billy Sunday

ASSISTANTS ARE PROMINENT

Evangelist's Party Made Up of National Figures

Rev. William Edward Biedewolf has been in the evangelistic field for twenty years and is today the oldest evangelist in point of service in the world. His efforts have for years ranked with those of Billy Sunday, in size and in results accomplished.

Dr. Biedewolf is a graduate of Princeton and like Sunday won a great athletic in his day, a tackle on the football team and a member of the Princeton gymnastic team and a contender for championship honors as a bicycle rider. He retains much of his athletic spirit to this day and sometimes amazes the men in the shops where he speaks by lifting weights that two ordinary men could not move. His strong constitution enables him to put vigor and power into his preaching night after night for the many weeks of the campaign.

Dr. Biedewolf is an author of note. His books are to be found on the shelves of most every religious library. He is chairman of the National Federation Committee on Evangelism, vice president of the International Association of Evangelists and director of the great Winona Bible Conference, the largest conference of its kind in the world.

He is considered by many to be America's greatest preacher. Someone has said that he possesses the learning of a Chapman, the pathos of a Gipsy Smith with the fiery zeal and eloquence of a Billy Sunday. He is a great preacher for men, having spoken to probably greater gatherings of men than any one in the country. His meetings for men only in the tabernacle on Sunday afternoon will be one of the features of the campaign.

Dr. Biedewolf has recently completed his second trip around the world and is now completing a great tour of evangelism.

He will bring with him a corps of trained experts in their various lines. John Ross Reed, the musical director and soloist of the party is a native of Fairview, W. Va., but retains headquarters in New York City. Before entering religious work he was a member of the Boston Opera Company and is now a prominent chautauqua singer and a Columbia recording artist. He will direct the two great choirs at the tabernacle and will render a solo at each service. He ranks among the foremost directors in the evangelistic field. He will also have charge of the children's work, speaking in all the public schools and leading several meetings in the tabernacle for boys and girls.

Mr. Rollings, campaign manager and director of men's work is known to many people of Lima having been in the city several weeks organizing the campaign and superintending the building of the tabernacle. His home is in Detroit, Michigan, where he was engaged in investment banking business before entering religious work. He has charge of all out of town delegations attending the tabernacle services.

BIBLE WORKER

Mrs. Frances C. Allison of Chicago, who has charge of the work among women and girls is director of the practical work course of the Moody Bible Institute. She was formerly connected with the Women's Bible Institute at Los Angeles. Mrs. Allison has been active in evangelistic work for many years during which time she has been associated with many of the leading evangelists in the country. She will speak in the factories where girls are employed, will conduct noon day luncheons for business girls and will speak to the girls in the high schools.

Home W. Grimes hails from Detroit. He is first pianist of the party and shares with Mr. Reed, the vocal solo work. He is a man of many talents being also an ordained minister, a graduate of Kalamazoo College and Louisville Theological Seminary. He assists Rollings in conducting shop meetings and also is director of the work among the young people of the churches and clubs and industrial plants during the course of the meetings. He is also a composer of music.

Mr. Grimes is a World War veteran having served 18 months overseas, wounded and gassed several times. He is a member of the American Legion.

Glenn Grace, second pianist for the Biedewolf meetings is at home in Providence, R. I. He is a Hoosier by birth. He has been engaged in piano for various evangelists throughout the country for ten years, the last two years having been spent with Dr. Biedewolf. Mr. Grimes seeks to make his art as effective as the verbal messages from the platform, improvising upon scenes from the Bible.

INTERESTED IN SCOUTS

He is greatly interested in boys and young men, having been associated with the Boy Scout movement conducting camps, hikes and teaching woodcraft. During the early period of the war he taught military subjects in Kelly Field aviation camp, later enlisting in an army band as solo clarinetist. His varied experiences lend color to his talks to young men. Among them is a 300 mile trip made in the north in January, hiking alone and living entirely in the open. On a recent four hundred mile jaunt in the south he was arrested by mountain men as a murder suspect, the later the subject of his hospitality.

Grace says he hopes to know every young fellow in Lima, name and address within six days. He will heartily appreciate their assistance and their friendship.

Miss Florence E. Ray who will join the party about the third week of the campaign resides in Erie, Pa. She is

INITIAL MEETING HELD TONIGHT

Chairman of the campaign will introduce Dr. W. E. Biedewolf to the waiting congregation. He will then introduce the members of his party.

After the introductions, there will be a special selection from the choir, and a solo by John Ross Reed.

At 8:10 p. m. Dr. Biedewolf will deliver the first sermon of the campaign.

A great revival spirit has been aroused among the men and women of Lima by religious meetings which have taken place during the past two weeks.

640 MEETINGS

Over 640 cottage prayer meetings have been held in various homes by the women of the city. These meetings have brought about 6,400 women in close touch with the Biedewolf campaign and are expected to do a lot toward the success of the campaign.

Eleven shop meetings have been conducted this week by E. J. Rollings, assistant evangelist of the Biedewolf party and Victor Byrd, industrial secretary of the Y. M. C. A., assisted by Miss Reynolds of the Y. W. C. A., Capt. Wilkinson of the Salvation Army and others. These meetings have been attended by twenty-five hundred men.

Not only has the spirit of religion been aroused in Lima but ministers from near by towns and villages have reported that their churches have responded already to the movement.

Union meetings of pastors and representatives of churches have been held and arrangements have been made for large delegations to attend the religious rally here.

WOULD SPANK PARENTS OF ERRING OFFSPRING

CHICAGO—Parents of young boys and girls who participate in "puppy love" escapades should be publicly spanked, along with their erring offspring, according to Judge Lawrence Jacobs, of the Chicago Boys' court.

Passing on the case of two youthful lovers, Judge Jacobs said:

"What these children need is a good, old fashioned spanking. Furthermore in nearly every case you will find parental indulgence. It wouldn't be a bad idea to hand out a little of the same corrective to the parents."

"The baby love germ seems to be highly infective, but in most cases I believe the 'marriage' excuse is simply to cover up indiscretions. I think if we had a few public spankings of children and their parents the fashion would suddenly become unpopular."

Now that the Clarences are banding together for common protection, the Reinholds and Percivals are considering following suit.

TABERNACLE WILL SEAT 6,067

Building Would Accommodate Entire City of Wapakoneta

CONVENIENCES PROVIDED

Emergencies of Every Sort Are Provided For

Every person in Wapakoneta could be comfortably seated in the huge Biedewolf tabernacle which has been erected at the corner of Pierce and Circular-ists and there would still be room for Spencerville in the choir.

A meeting held Friday night when the choir was organized was the first gathering. The demand for singers was responded to in a manner which enabled two big choirs to be organized.

The building is 208 feet long and 40 feet wide and seats 6,067 people or 1,500 more than the Billy Sunday tabernacle. In the construction of the big pine temple there was used 96,000 feet of lumber, 350 squares of roofing, 600 pounds of nails, 30 tons of sawdust, 20 tons of cinders and fifteen outside doors.

In this building are several comfortable rest rooms which are completely furnished with easy chairs writing tables and cots.

NURSERY PROVIDED

A large warm nursery has been provided in which the children will have the best of care and will be looked after by a company of nurses. The nursery contains little chairs, cots and plenty of toys to keep the visitors happy.

Medical attention can be given at a moments notice in the first aid hospital which has been built right in the building and contains up to date equipment.

There are spacious rooms for the ushers, the choir, the personal workers and the ministers.

The tabernacle has a systematic office in which the members of the evangelistic party will prepare and arrange their lines of work.

Lima's business men have shown their approval of the tabernacle and the Biedewolf campaign by help they have given.

The Solar Refining Company, the Ohio Electric Company and Garford Motor Truck company donated cinders. Sawdust was given by the Holmes and Kentner Lumber Co. and by the Swisher Lumber Company.

The Hoover-Roush Co. and Rowland Furniture company gave furniture for the rest rooms.

Hauling was done by Patterson Brothers. Labor was donated by Lima Telephone company, Lima Construction Company and the Capeniers Union. Pianos have been donated by Women's Music Club, Maus Piano company and Pisk-Pursell. The Y. M. C. A. gave the first aid kits.

Plumbing was done by the Holland Plumber Company, W. J. Jackson and E. J. Elliott. The Star Carpet Cleaning company gave carpets for the rest rooms, nursery and office.

ENTRANCE TO SOUTH

The main entrance to the tabernacle is on the south side. Roomy seats are placed facing the platform which is at the north of the building.

This platform has been erected for the seating of the choir. In front of the choir will be places for the ministers, musicians and delegates. In front of them all will be the small elevated platform from which Dr. Biedewolf will deliver his messages to the people of Lima and the surrounding country.

Sawdust will form a warm thick covering over all the main floor and the tabernacle is so located that the ground will remain dry in spite of any bad weather that might come.

This new building exceeds any of its kind that has ever been constructed in Lima in its capacity, its comforts and its orderly arrangement.

INDICTMENT AGAINST BERGER DISMISSED

MILWAUKEE—Three indictments charging Congressman Victor L. Berger and four other Socialists with conspiracy to obstruct the government's prosecution of the war, were dismissed by Federal Judge J. A. Geiger, May 8 of this year, it became known Saturday.

The indictments had been hanging over because the government was prosecuting Mr. Berger on the same charge in Chicago.

It was charged in the indictments that the defendants conspired to aid the subject to selective service to avoid service; that they conspired to send matter thru the mail in violation of the espionage act; that they conspired to publish articles in foreign languages without filing translation with the postmaster.

PART OF PAY RECEIVED BY JUDGES DEMANDED

CLEVELAND—First legal steps to compel 10 present and former common pleas judges to repay Cuyahoga-co, $20,585.16 which they received in salary, were taken late Saturday by John Zangerle, county auditor.

Zangerle notified the judges that unless they returned the money as ordered by the state supreme court, he could start civil proceedings against them immediately.

The sum involved represents amounts paid the judges who were in office when the state legislature increased judge's salaries from $6,000 to $8,000 a year.

SOLIDARITY PLAN WINS FAVOR

Allen-co Democrats Project Formation of Club

ELECTION RESULTS MIXED

Judge Hough Defeated—Straw Vote Discredited

(By J. W. FISHER)

Despite the hue and cry that communities are over-organized, it is like the case of physicians and dentists in the average small town—there is always room for one more.

Democrats of Lima and Allen-co realize that in unity there is strength. Hence it is with the idea of spreading the principles of Democracy that leaders of the party in the city and county are considering the organization of what will be known as the Allen County Democratic club. The intention is to incorporate under the laws of Ohio. If the plans now in an embryonic state go thru.

Advocates of the principles of Democracy are not alarmed over the developing independence of the voters. In fact, they hail the situation with satisfaction, believing that with a permanent organization and the constant dissemination of information concerning the real issues of the day, they will be well justified when pre-election political battles open.

With all-the-year-around headquarters, open at all times, with Democratic literature, provided and discussions by speakers concerning the ever-developing new conditions of a county-wide club the basis of later working conditions, a more solidified phalanx of believers in the party principles and a stronger tendency toward the selection of better men for office.

The entry of women into politics is affording a more refined atmosphere in contests where candidates, issues and voters are involved. Promoters of the new plan, now in an embryonic state, have in mind the formation of auxiliary clubs in the various wards of the city, in the smaller cities and towns and in each township of the county, to work in conjunction with the parent body.

Numerous of the party leaders have expressed themselves as very favorable and it is believed that something of a positive character will soon be worked out along this line.

Attempted analysis of the result of the vote in the general elections on Tuesday of the past week is making old line politicians fairly dizzy.

There is no explanation in their opinion, for the complete turnover in various states, involving both the old parties. While the results in Ohio are more favorable in numbers to the Republicans than to the Democrats, it is pointed out that with the Democrats having captured the offices of governor and lieutenant-governor, they are placed in a certain strategic position that augurs well for the benefit of the party organization.

If Governor-to-be Donahy is the wise chap he appears to be, he will see in no wise interfere with the general provisions of the Governor Davis reorganization measure, which gives the governor powers plenary over all departments of state government activity.

As was clearly brought out during the campaign, the Democrats had no quarrel with the Republican administration over the provisions of the ripper bill save that it denied to heads of departments control over their own departments. Donahy has promised to remedy this situation. The Democratic leaders also found fault with the emergency clause, which denied the people the right of referendum on the measure, under the constitution. And Judge Ben Hough paid the penalty for having supported the emergency in a supreme court decision. He was the majority end of the four-to-three decision who was up for re-election this year. Judge Hough was defeated. He is a Republican.

Just why it is that Republican states went Democratic and Democratic states went Republican where Democratic victories seemed assured, is something more than the wise heads can explain. In Ohio, there is evidence plenty that the voters knew what they wanted—and they got it. While most people believe in the principles of one or the other of the old parties, they do not hesitate to break over the line if they feel the situation warrants it.

Who believes in straw votes now? Not very many persons, quite likely, save an emphatic upset of the pre-election. For days and weeks previous to the actual casting of the ballots, straw votes taken by several newspapers in all parts of the state indicated positively that the swing was toward the cause of the Democratic party.

However, of the very eve of the election, when Republicans as well as Democrats believed that the election was "set" for a Democratic sweep, the heaven was working and the fruition of the overtendency came within a few hours. With only two of the total number of state officers elected being chosen from the Democratic column and a Republican elected for United States senator, the Democratic hosts were utterly stunned when the results were made known.

In past years, the straw vote proved an infallible barometer of the situation. Therefore have given it a terrific cloud if those newspapers which have been conducting "straw" campaigns do not get "wise," there will likely be similar reverses in the future.

In 1920, when the straw vote was running so strongly to Harding and Daw, the Democrats refused to believe it and continued their campaign with renewed vigor.

When a sweeping Republican victory came, even stronger than the advance vote indicated, confidence in the straw vote was firmly entrenched.

Since the experience of 1920, it is only reasonable to believe that many people who marked straw ballots decided to put a stop to the thing, by voting in the election in exactly the opposite manner.

Hence, under the circumstances, it isn't likely that either of the parties will be aided or harmed by this sort of thing in another election. Democratic leaders believe firmly now that if newspaper polls had not been taken, disclosing strong sentiment in their behalf, the ultimate result would now be different. Be that as it may, the straw vote has been discredited. Any newspaper that again attempts such a thing will need to be possessed of a large measure of courage.

Hair-breadth "escapes" by candidates from defeat in the election in Allen-co were features of the ballot battle. In one instance the result was exactly a tie between the opposing candidates, 9,493 persons having voted for each of Dr. A. C. Adams, Republican, and Dr. Frank Smith, Democrat, for Adams won in a draw and was declared re-elected.

Harry Botkins, Republican, up for re-election for county treasurer, won out by 45 votes over his Democratic opponent, N. W. Basinger. Two years ago Botkins won over Basinger by 1,378.

Allen-co gave Vic Donahy, Democratic candidate for governor, a majority of 2,048 over Carmel Thompson, Republican. Two years ago Donahy carried this county by 64 over Davis, while Harding was given a majority of 2,320.

To John T. Cotner, Democrat, clerk of courts for two years past, goes the palm for having piled up the biggest majority in this unit of the commonwealth, over Mrs. Loretta Durbin. He received exactly 5,216 votes more than accorded to Mrs. Durbin. It is the occasion of general comment that Judge Florence Allen, of Cleveland, who was elected supreme judge as an independent, received only 1,553 less votes in Allen-co than did Mrs. Durbin. Considering that Mrs. Durbin had the advantage of residence here, the vote given Miss Allen as an independent is remarkable.

Judge Phil Crow was given a plurality of 4,788; Bloom, Democrat, won over Chaffield, of Cincinnati, for lieutenant governor by 3,874 in the county; Cable, Republican, took a lead of 3,787 over Goeke, Democrat, for congress; Smith, Democrat, over Toy for surveyor by 3,729; Phillips, Democrat, over Hartman, of Cincinnati, by 2,728. Other majorities ranged downward, save against the beer and wine amendment which stands at 5,728; against fair bonds 8,344; against debt limitation, 5,728; against classification for taxation, 5,459.

The total vote in the county was estimated at 25,000, whereas but 21,160 were polled, of which Lima cast 11,821 and the remainder of the county 9,345.

This column once stated that it was "not a far cry from printer's devil to governor," when reference was made to Vic Donahy, a printer "cub" in New Philadelphia in his boyhood days, who has forged ahead until now he is to be the next governor of Ohio, having been elected during the past week.

Something of the same sort might be applied to the case of John L. Cable, re-elected as a member of congress from this district by what must be termed an overwhelming majority, considering that the district is normally Democratic. Cable broke in two years ago with a majority of something like 4,000 and came back this year with a majority of over 7,000.

John's achievement has made him real gubernatorial timber, particularly since it was practically admitted by the Republican national congressional committee a few weeks ago (so the newspaper reports said, but the committee later denied it) that John had been given up among the "lost."

Cable, in his younger days, did not pester around a printing office so far as known, but he did improve every moment of his existence in getting next to the ways of the people and taking on an education that has later stood him well in hand. He came up thru a lawyer's office and has made a study of human nature. He acquired the art of carrying a smile that doesn't come off and schooled himself early in the great game of campaigning.

Hence, when he ran for prosecuting attorney of Allen-co, he came under the wire a winner twice. Then, in the congressional scramble, he emerged heads up. Breaking down the barriers for a second term in congress from this district entitles the Lima man to further opportunity to the hands of his party, whether he desires to again "buck the tiger" or not.

Even the most rabid of John's political enemies admire him for his successes in the face of seeming obstacles. Cable has no further political ambitions, so he says, but he may change his mind.

United States senator-elect, S. D. Fess, who is to succeed Senator Atlee Pomerene, will be relieved from a very embarrassing situation of Senator Truman Newberry of Michigan should resign, as it is currently reported he intends doing.

Had Senator Pomerene been re-elected, he was pledged to support a new resolution for the ousting of Newberry. Truman could save a large number of his constituents in the upper house of congress mental disturbance by sneaking out the back door. Since Newberry is of the same political complexion as Fess, Simeon would likely feel a lot of inner satisfaction if Truman should decide to get away from further contention concerning his seat. However, before departing for a hunting trip, Newberry denied the rumor that he might retire.

Newberry is said to have been impelled toward resignation by the fact that Senator-elect Woodbridge Ferris of Michigan, a Democrat, is camping on his trail, having defeated Senator Townsend, who defended Newberry.

There is some division of sentiment among Democrats and Republicans relative to the effect of the results of the Tuesday ballot of the election. Democrats generally see in it a rebuke to the present national administration, while S. D. Fess, elected United States senator, believes his preference is all that is necessary to indicate that the Harding administration is approved. The result in Ohio, mixed tho it is, gives the Republicans more offices, but the important office of governor is lost to them. This can probably be laid at the door of Governor Harry L. Davis for the most part of the way, as Carmel Thompson endorsed his administration and had to bear the onus of it.

Democrats point to the successes of their party in other states and see visions of victory in 1924 in Ohio with various counties swinging back into the Democratic column. There is satisfaction for both in the outcome. Lines are already being formed for the battle in 1924.

What the issues will be is still undecided. Time will be required to decide this.

The voters of 16 counties of this section of Ohio, comprising the Third Judicial district, placed the stamp of approval on the services of Judge Phil Crow, Lima man, to such an extent that he has been re-elected by a plurality approximately of 27,000, carrying every county in the district.

In the case of Judge Crow, his election appeared at all times to be assured. And a straw vote wasn't necessary to indicate it. Judge Crow's record on the court of appeals bench has been of such a character that his election was a foregone conclusion.

Lima is proud of the achievement of this man. Nothing that was said in the campaign in praise of his work on the bench was overdrawn. The people of the 16 counties recognized in Judge Crow a jurist of too great value to be retired at this time. Consequently, he is returned by the greatest plurality ever accorded a candidate in the district, probably.

President Harding views the Ohio results as satisfactory in the way of a "crucial test" in the endorsement of his administration. The Star, the president's own newspaper, published at Marion, points to the fact that Ohio elected a Republican United States senator, 14 congressmen out of 22, his Democratic district went Republican by 3,000 and the president's county, city, ward and precinct at Marion went Republican.

Personal friends of President Harding in Marion-co resent the statement emanating from Washington over a press association wire that "the only apparent ray of sunshine for the president was that Democratic gains in Ohio were not so sweeping as elsewhere."

In a measure, the Star is correct. President Harding had his worst political shakes before the vote was cast, after he heard from his personal scout, sent into Ohio to ascertain the situation. It certainly looked blue at that time, but ultimate results were of a brighter hue. While not altogether satisfactory to the Republicans, it could have been worse.

Since congress is to remain Republican in its complexion in both houses, there appears to be little hope that anything will be accomplished during the next two years toward the repeal of the Fordney-McCumber tariff law, unless rising prices of necessities to the great public as a result of it brings a yowl and yammer from all over the land that progressive Republicans will hear and heed.

With the present congress called to meet in special session November 20, two weeks in advance of the regular session, there is considerable speculation as to what may be done with legislation pending when the body adjourned for the fall play day. The newly elected members of congress will not take their seats until March 4 at least, hence the present complexion of that body will not be changed in the special session.

It is stated that President Harding will nominate retiring United States Senator Atlee Pomerene to succeed Associate Justice Day of the supreme court and request the senate to confirm the selection.

Many Ohioans have won fame and honor in other states in the later years of their life. Among the latest is Clarence C. Dill, elected United States Senator from Washington, over Miles Polinder, his Republican opponent. In this case the former Ohioan who has wrested the place from the well known Senator Polinder, is a Democrat, born on the edge of Morrow and Knox cos. He served one term in congress.

There is joy in the ranks of those opposed to Judge Benson W. Hough, of the Ohio supreme court, over his defeat by Judge Florence Allen, independent. Opposition was centered on Judge Hough as one of the number who voted to sustain the emergency clause of the Davis ripper bill. Hough's friends are dazed over his crushing defeat. His running mate, Judge Robert Day, was 120,000 ahead of Judge Hough. It is believed that other justices who voted with Hough on the ripper emergency are marked for defeat when they run again.

City and urban folks all over the state joined with Allen-co citizens in administering a decisive defeat to the initiated amendment conferring power upon the general assembly to classify property for taxation. The adverse majority will be well over 200,000. The voters were more lenient with the companion amendment providing for the limitation of public debt and the restriction of the issuing of bonds. This proposition loses by about 80,000.

Few people perhaps recall that the bill providing for the adoption of the use of the Australian ballot in Ohio, which has proven so eminently satisfactory, was introduced in the general assembly by Senator M. D. Shaw, former Wapakoneta, now a resident of Columbus. It was adopted in 1891. The circle under the party emblem is the suggestion of John Henry Newman, former state librarian.

Because he did not read the newspapers and was not posted as to the state of the election, David A. Liggitt, Logan-co Republican, sent a telegram to Frank Hursh, Hardin-co, congratulating him on his election to state senate in the 31st district. After analyzing a newspaper canvass of the vote in the seven counties, Liggitt found that he had defeated Hursh by 700 votes.

Every election brings its lessons. Despite the fact that the army of voters visits its wrath on perpetrators of anonymous attacks on candidates, the practice continues from year to year. Sometimes it is impossible to establish the identity of the guilty before an election, as the underground attacks are made a few days before election. Incidents in connection with the recent campaign in Allen-co should serve as a salutary warning to others for all time that the electors do not approve of dirty methods in politics.

Governor-elect A. V. Donahy pledged to bring the government of Ohio right-about-face and see to it that it is conducted in the interests of all the people, will be inducted into office in January. He will have a general assembly with a Republican majority, but the reorganization bill confers upon the governor control of departments heretofore beyond his reach. And in event anything should happen to remove Donahy from the scene of action, the state will still have a Democratic governor, as the lieutenant governor-elect was Donahy's running mate, Earl Bloom, of Bowling Green.

WILSON STANDS BY 1918-1920 PRINCIPLES

REITERATES HIS PEACE POLICY

Ex-President's Remarks Cheered by Thousands

CROWD GATHERS AT HOME

U. S. Content With Armistice, He Tells Admirers

(BY A. L. BRADFORD)
WASHINGTON, (United Press)—After two years of silence, an invited in his Washington home, Woodrow Wilson Saturday made his first speech upon international affairs since leaving the presidency. Heartened, possibly by the feeling of Tuesday and with the inspiration of 3,000 men and women cheering in front of his home, the former president told them—and his words were flashed around the world—that he still stood by the principle for which he fought from 1913 to 1920.

Gray-haired, his figure bent and stooped by long illness, the war president assailed the old foes of the league of nations with all the fire his enfeebled condition would allow.

Mr. Wilson did not refer specifically to the present administration but mentioned his arch opponents of the senate including Senator Lodge with biting sarcasm.

ATTITUDE OF SENATE
The United States has remained content with an armistice and has not moved forward to peace, he declared.

This condition was brought about by a group in the senate who preferred personal and partisan motives to the honor of their country and the peace of the world," he said.

But he asserted further on "these puny persons will find that their weakness is no longer to stand against the strength of Providence."

There were flashes of the will to power in the former president's speech, leaning heavily upon his cane, addressing the crowd of admirers. His eyes gleamed with the old determination, and again with his old humor, as he put on his hat but gave assurance that "he would not talk through."

Politics was of first importance. Since he left office, nothing has come from the former president in the form of criticism or otherwise as the policies of the Republican administration have unfolded.

When president, he declared that to make a separate peace with Germany would be a national disgrace.

Such a peace was made and Saturday for the first time, Mr. Wilson publicly voiced his opinion of the action with the assertion that nothing more than an armistice had been realized.

MAY DIRECT MINORITY
The speech of the former president also gives rise to speculation as to whether in addition to a vastly stronger minority with which the Republicans will have to deal in both house and senate, the next two years may see a more vigorous Democratic leadership, directed, at least by Mr. Wilson.

Introducing the former president Saturday Henry Morganthau, former ambassador to Turkey, declared that Tuesday's election "demonstrated that the people are reacting from materialism and are preparing again to recognize their solemn duty towards their fellow nations in Europe."

"Heart! Heart!" Mr. Wilson declared with a smile. And a few hours after delivery of his speech a letter to Mr. Wilson from Senator Caraway was made public in which he expressed appreciation that Caraway's "should attribute the result of Tuesday in some measure to the people's thought of me."

"We must now clear our minds and purify our hearts to offer to the country in 1924 exactly the service it most needs and the candidate who can best render that service," the letter continued.

VOICE WEATHER
The speech of the former president to the crowd before his house was extemporaneous. At times, he seemed to go on only with effort. At first he held his hat in his right hand, his cane crooked on his left pocket, and his left hand was curved at his side. His voice was not so strong as in the past, but he articulated most clearly. After he began, a little girl struggled up to him and placed two baskets of flowers at his feet. The ex-president looked painfully over, smiled at the child and shook her hand.

Long before 3 o'clock, the hour set for the demonstration for Mr. Wilson, every vantage point in front of the house was taken by admiring thousands. People were perched in trees, on stone walls and leaning from windows of nearby buildings. The street was packed from curb to curb.

A man announced that Mr. Wilson would appear at the second story window, so that "all could see him." As he stood in the open window, as if in a frame, the acclaim from below grew in intensity and volume. First, old songs of his native state—Virginia—were sung. "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia" and others. The invalid, stood listening, munching something, probably a piece of chocolate.

The speech, however, was delivered from the small front porch of the house.

STANDS ALONE
Mr. Wilson hobbled slowly out of the house and was helped down the single step by his negro attendant. He stood alone on the little porch with only the alert negro and a stenographer and took off his hat as an ovation thunders from the crowd. He carried the same MacLellan cane with the rubber cap on the end of it that he did two years ago, as he stumbled, as he left the White House on inauguration day. He was dressed in a black frock coat and grey trousers and high silk hat.

The former president's face appeared somewhat fuller and slightly more colorful than on the occasion of his previous appearance.

Mr. Morganthau advanced from the crowd and began a speech of greeting by saying it would take him hours to express his feelings for the ex-president, and his thoughts on the occasion. Mr. Wilson chuckled, smiles out of the right side of his mouth, as only he can and said:

"Don't do it."

The entire demonstration at the Wilson home lasted about an hour. At its conclusion, Mrs. Wilson went with the former president for their usual afternoon automobile ride. Their laps were banked with flowers, as they bowed a farewell to the cheering crowd.

TEXT OF ADDRESS
The text of Wilson's address follows:

"Mr. Morganthau, ladies and gentlemen:

"I am very much moved by this wonderful exhibition of your friendship and approval and I have been reflecting Saturday that armistice day has a particular significance for the United States because the United States has remained contented with the armistice and has not moved forward to peace."

"It is a very serious reflection that the United States has in part diverted that while we prescribed the condition of the armistice, we will not occur in establishment of permanent peace. That, of course was brought about by a group in the United States senate who preferred personal and partisan motives to the honor of their country and the peace of the world."

"It is a standstill of arms—that is all it is. It is a cessation of fighting. But we are so content on a cessation of fighting that we are even throwing our arms away."

"It is a singular circumstance to which Mr. Morganthau has in part adverted that while we prescribed the condition of the armistice, we will not occur in establishment of permanent peace. That, of course was brought about by a group in the United States senate who preferred personal and partisan motives to the honor of their country and the peace of the world."

"I am a standstill of arms—that is all it is. It is a cessation of fighting. But we are so content on a cessation of fighting that we are even throwing our arms away."

"DIP" OF CYCLONE MISSES OHIO

Strong & O. P. Cities Show Greatest Disaffection

"MARCUS" GIVES ANALYSIS

Credits Knight as Aide in Donahay Victory

THE LIMA NEWS BUREAU, Columbus, November 11.

COLUMBUS.—(Special).—Ohio and Pennsylvania, for some strange reason, seem to have been states that missed the destructive whirlwind that passed over the Republic on Tuesday. In Pennsylvania the Republicans lost relatively little of their position of 1920 despite the fact that the strong Republican cities showed disaffection. In Ohio the normal status of the two political parties were restored in some ways and swung Democratic in others. No sufficient analysis has yet been made of the election returns to show clearly the relative strong places and weak places. For one thing it must be remembered that every effort was concentrated on Ohio and that an extraneous issue in the beer amendment was injected in such a way as to provide the greatest harm to President Warren G. Harding's political opponents. Then, too, it must be remembered that Senator Allen Pomeroy's broad national patriotism was capitalized against him and his refusal to make the way more difficult for the Harding administration was the very thing used to terminate his active career in national legislative halls. But viewed in another way, the cyclonic "dip" may be subjected to the conclusion that missing Ohio, they also missed Illinois and Iowa, where Republican victories resulted.

There is another conclusion that may be drawn. For instance, few states witnessed such a rout as did Ohio from a Democratic standpoint in 1920. From that disaster the ground was not likely to be relieved in a single election. Of course, the Republicans carried the hands of the Harry L. Davis administration and this seems to have been their greatest hindrance. More than that, it is doubtful whether they could have picked another candidate who would have been defeated under all the circumstances. Likewise, it seems to be no less certain that the Democrats could have picked no other candidate who could have been elected had the claims of A. Victor Donahay been ignored. These facts are worthy of consideration. While it was contended on some hands that the primary canvass helped Donahay it hurt in other places and it hurt badly. The Republican primary canvass was the one thing that made Col. Carmel A. Thompson's election impossible. So for the Democratic governor, the voters can render their thanks to Charles Landon Knight of Akron. Had he line up his followers and supported Thompson vigorously the story might have been different. Other defections were not so serious as the Cleveland multi-millionaire who came to Ohio from Minnesota to take the big plunge.

Legislative responsibility will rest upon Republican shoulders and cannot be avoided. Administrative responsibility will rest on the shoulders of A. V. Donahay and can be avoided only to the extent in which he has disappeared. It should be handicapped. Taking note of the existing state of political feeling with the disposition to crush those who persist in mixing up the government, or departing from sound governmental principles it would appear that the elections may have had a sobering effect upon the people to whom power has been given. It will require rare diplomacy upon the part of both factions to keep peace in the family during the next two years. What seems to have happened is that Republican lawmakers were not charged with the sins which carried to defeat the heads of the state ticket on the Republican side. There was no defense of the general assembly, but the individual members pleaded to their constituents that they did the things they did under a sort of compulsion from the governor's office. Not a single member ever defended his emergency votes. So far as the state is concerned the guess may be ventured that Ohio's constitution will be more heartily respected in the future. There will be little emergency legislation. That is pretty sure.

With respect to legislation it may be set down as the wish of all people that the session may be harmonious and that partisan quarrels be eliminated. There have been little to do with taxation, which is dangerously high nor with other matters which concern the welfare of state. It may be hoped that lobbying activities will be kept to the lowest point and that effort may be made to find solutions for certain problems before the state. The General Assembly has a chance to work out a taxation program if it will take the responsibility. It can eliminate dead matter from the statutes and it can reduce the number of positions and share the glory for this achievement with the governor. If the body should handicap him the governor is likely to have public sympathy with him just as Governor Harmon had in 1910 when he asked a second term on the record of his administration. The possession of the attorney general's office is a big vantage point for the Republicans as C. C. Crabbe can either block or expedite an inquiry will make the governor's life a regime now soon to depart this political life. If there was nothing to it, the state should know. If there was something to it, that, too, should be known.

What appears to have been a promising political prospect went on the rocks when Judge Benson W. Hough met defeat in his effort for a second term on the Ohio supreme court bench. He ran nearly 100,000 behind his associate on the Republican judicial ticket. With splendid military record, Judge Hough had a wonderful chance to become a factor in Ohio affairs, but the weight of only two years' record on the supreme court bench carried him to retirement. The results will make the three remaining members of the "Big Four" exceedingly apprehensive. In fact, there is no longer a "Big Four" since it is doubtful if it can be reconstituted by taking in a new member. Judge Robert H. Day of Canton, the judge-elect, is not of the Hough type. It is already noted that Judge James E. Robinson of Marysville is the next of the quartet to come before the people. Judge Robinson is more bold in his position and hence will make a better fight to vindicate himself. He may be challenged in the primary election by some opponent. At all events he will have no military record and it is also easily forecasted that as he had been longer on the bench he has a greater accumulation of questionable decisions to defend. The interesting thing is that the new natural protest votes against the obvious graft to so-called enforcement of prohibition. There are stories of one sheriff who "saves $500 a week out of his salary" and of others who have got picking out of this lucrative business. Nothing of that kind ever reached the public nor was anything else done. The motive is left for the class in political existence to analyze. There are ordinary political persons who say that the beer amendment was given to the Republican campaign managers for a stipulation. Besides that, the collection privileges may have been bestowed. And they are something, as others can testify.

It will be recalled that in former years the prohibition elections were timed to meet exigencies in politics and that they were sprung in years in which they were served for other purposes. There was a cruel joke in the instant campaign. When Col. Carmel Thompson failed to come out against the beer amendment, he revealed that there was a cabal in Republican state headquarters to put the quietus on James A. White's influence. White is now in a strong position to realize his life-time ambition to hold high station on his own account. He might have come into the governorship contest this year but preferred at last to wait. He is now in a position to test his luck two years from this time. If he cares to make the effort he will have a flying start because he might have put Carmel over as he helped to put Fess over. The headquarter's assuredness that he was out of the running and he disappointed some hopes in proving that a mistake had been made in calculations. The veto power of defeat might even lead the organizations to accept White next time and let him try his luck.

HISTORIAN REGRETS REMARKS ON AMERICA
NEW YORK.—John Fortesque, British historian, barred by Secretary Weeks from speaking at the Annapolis naval academy, Saturday declared that he had regretted the remarks which caused Week's action.

The remarks, delivered in a lecture in 1911, were based on an unpleasantness between the Englishman and an American competitor in the Bering Sea negotiations.

He declared he had regretted his "harsh judgment since he came to know America more intimately and asserted that in his first public address here he would express those regrets.

Fortesque was referring to the colonial wars of 1767, when he spoke in the speech of "American trickery." It was explained.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL OPENED

American Legion Members Endorse Humanitarian Move

Lima's annual Red Cross roll call began Saturday altho the real work of the campaign will not be done until Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week.

A beautiful float portraying "The Greatest Mother in the World," with Mrs. Henry M. Kamerer in the title role, impressed upon the minds of every watcher of the Armistice Day parade the glory of the organization.

Every pastor in the city will continue the campaign Sunday by telling briefly of the work of the Red Cross and the need for the united support of the people of the United States.

Monday the actual campaign will begin with A. C. Calhoun as general chairman and Mrs. Frank Mead in charge of the women's organization. Hundreds of workers have been enlisted and it is planned to complete the work by Thursday morning.

Thousands of stickers were placed on automobile windshields Saturday by Boy Scouts, making it a very unusual sight to see an automobile without one.

In a resolution adopted by the American Legion the work of the Red Cross has been very clearly stated and reasons given why it should be supported by every citizen.

"Whereas, the American National Red Cross was during the war untiring and faithful in its service to the man of the Army, Navy and Marine Corps of the United States; and

"Whereas, since the Armistice in hospitals both abroad and at home the American Red Cross has provided for disabled service men the service and comforts that the Government of necessity is not able to furnish; and

"Whereas, the American National Red Cross has co-operated in every way with the Veterans' Bureau in seeking out and rendering assistance to disabled service men entitled to care, training and compensation because of their disability; and

"Whereas, the American National Red Cross has been both during and since the War a good neighbor and faithful friend to the families and dependents of the men of the Army and Navy; therefore be it

"Resolved, that American Legion voices its appreciation of the service rendered by the American Red Cross, and in its turn heartily endorses the appeal that the American Red Cross is to make the American public, beginning Armistice Day, through the Annual Membership Roll Call, for support in carrying out its splendid work; and be it further

"Resolved, that the American Legion hereby calls upon its members of America to lend their influence and give their aid in every way possible in carrying through the Red Cross Roll Call a successful completion."

CHICAGO.—D. W. Griffith, peer of motion picture producers, Saturday bemoaned the fickleness of the stars.

He appeared in Chicago with a new star in his wake, the pretty Carol Dempster and wondered how long she will devote her efforts to his productions.

"It's my job to make them famous, and then the money of John D. Rockefeller couldn't keep them on my payroll," he confided to reporters. "The world thinks I'm fickle—but it's not me."

"I pick them out of the crowd of actors and actresses endeavoring to make a name in the movies. The world falls in love with them and then they desert me to make fat money than I make by producing their own pictures."

STINNES SAYS GERMANY MUST WORK LONG HOURS
BERLIN.—Germany must work two hours more daily for ten or fifteen years in order to be able even to exist, the Imperial economic council was told by Hugo Stinnes, the industrial magnate, in a speech published today by the Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung.

Herr Stinnes dwelt upon the unproductivity of the country and estimated that it must produce at least 200,000,000 gold marks more per month to live. Then all that would ensue would be the possibility of having something with which to pay reparations.

A loan of 500,000,000 gold marks now would merely be wasted within a few months, he told the council. "The people he thought could be induced to work longer hours if the entire withdrew the army of occupation from Germany."

COURTS TO BEGIN WINTER GRIND

Judges Becker and Eastman Will Hold Sessions

400 CASES ON DOCKET

Panels to Report Tuesday, Wednesday for Jury Duty

Common pleas court will settle up during the coming week for all winter grind to clean up more than 400 cases that are pending on the docket.

Judge Fred C. Becker will open court with 20 men and women reporting on Wednesday for jury duty. On Tuesday a second panel will report to Judge E. R. Eastman, of Putnam common pleas court, who is to sit in Allen-co for three weeks.

Judge Eastman will occupy the regular court room and Judge Becker will use the new court room, which has been fitted up in the old assembly hall in the basement.

As originally planned the jury in Judge Becker's court was scheduled to report Monday, but the date was switched to Wednesday.

HEARD ONE CASE

The jury which was called to try cases during October was excused by the court Thursday. Only one case was actually heard by the panel, which disagreed on the verdict. Six other cases in which the jury was to sit were dismissed without trial.

Progress on the new court room in the basement of the court house is proceeding rapidly. The rail separating the bar from the seat for the spectators is finished. The judges stand is in place and the jury box is ready for occupancy.

New furniture purchased from the Mansfield reformatory factory will be used inside the bar, for convenience of the court, jurors, attorneys and witnesses.

The old benches formerly used in the assembly hall are being revarnished for the spectators. The judge will have a small private office in the rear of the court room, and there will be a small cloak room for attorneys and jurors.

LIMA PEOPLE IN NEWS MOVIE

PRINCIPALS IN LIMA NEWS FILM

Feature Comedy Film at Sigma Theatre, Sunday

"THE CROSSROADS OF LIMA"

Police and Fire Departments Aid Production

Familiar scenes, familiar faces and familiar antics will greet Sigma patrons Sunday, when they view the first public showing of Lima's comedy film, "The Crossroads of Lima," presented by The Lima News.

And Lima will be able to judge the ability of its movie "stars" by the fact that the picture will precede the Mack Sennett comedy, "The Crossroads of New York."

Every scene in the first comedy was taken in Lima.

The comedy situations were devised by local amateur scenario writers. In fact, the "Crossroads of Lima" is entirely the product of the city, with the exception of the mechanical work, which was done in film laboratories in Chicago.

Like all real "reed" comedies, there is a runaway marriage, where the youthful elopers almost fall into the arms of an obliging minister whose specialty is felling frauds fathers.

The police department is brought into the picture, as is the entire fire department, which is seen making a "run" thru the business district.

The picture is replete with laughter and thrills and would furnish a good evening's amusement by itself, altho it is being used as a forerunner to the Sennett production.

After the picture completes its run at the Sigma, it will be sent to Los Angeles, where Mack Sennett will view the work of the Lima actors and actresses.

Georgia Wilson Clarence D. Rice Birdie Biglow

C. M. Salisbury, who resides at 236 S. Pine-st, is perhaps the most prominent character in the movie. Birdie Bigelow resides at 868 Bellefontaine-av; Marlan Morton at 808 W. MINISTERS TO ADDRESS LIMA LUNCHEON CLUBS

Lima Luncheon Clubs will stage their usual weekly events at the appointed time and places, with ministers as speakers.

Evangelist W. E. Biederwolf and his musical director, John Ross Reed, here to conduct a tabernacle campaign, will be guests of the Rotary club at the Norval Hotel at 11:45 a. m. Monday and of the Kiwanis club at the Argonne Hotel Tuesday at 11:45 a. m. Dr. Biederwolf will address the assemblies.

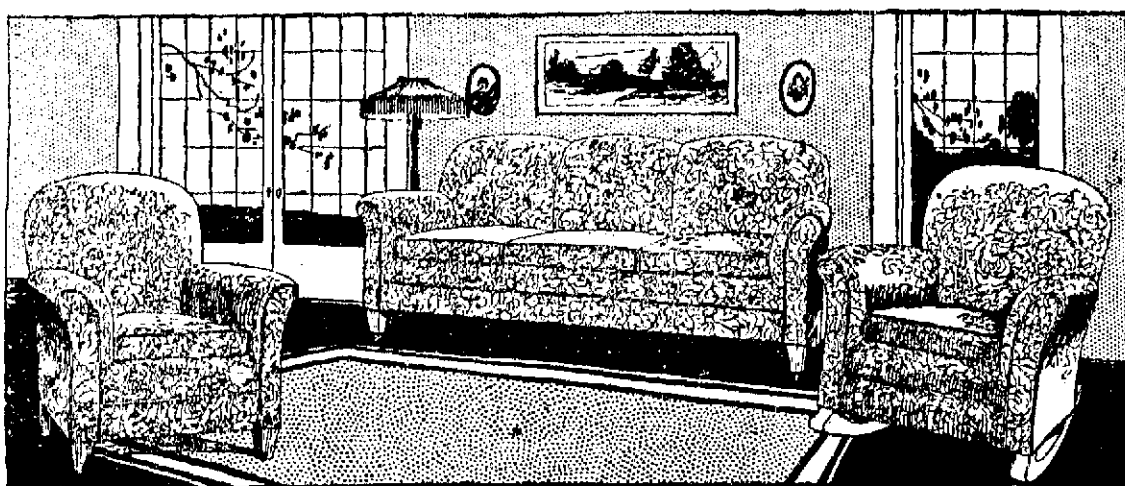

Wednesday noon, at the Elks Home the Lions club will be addressed by Dr. R. A. Rowand, pastor of Trinity M. E. church. The chorus of "Miss Bob White" will also feature the meeting of the Lions.

CONVICTED OF CHARGES PREFERRED BY WIFE

NEW YORK—Harry H. Frazee, president of the Boston Red Sox has been found guilty, with Elizabeth Nelson, an actress, of charges made against him by his wife, Mrs. Elsie Frazee, in her suit for divorce and the custody of her 13-year-old son, Harry, Jr.

The referee, who has been investigating the charges that Frazee and Miss Nelson lived together at Great Neck, L. I., has recommended that a divorce be granted.

"Well 'Pon My Soul"

"Well, 'pon my soul," exclaimed OLD SAINT NICK as he roamed up and down the aisles of our store—"well 'pon my soul," you have certainly OUTDONE all of your previous efforts this time. The old gentleman sat down in one of OUR COMFY ROCKERS, put his red top boot upon one of our TIRED KILLING FOOT RESTS, pulled up a new commodious SMOKING STAND and proceeded to light his pipe. "Have a cigar," we invited, but the old "JOY BRINGER" preferred his bit of clay pipe and we let him have his way. For an HOUR we talked—talked of the history-making epoch of the past year, talked of the joys and sorrows of the world since SANTA last sat in our store; talked on every day we could think of and at last got down to business.

"Well, I see you've ransacked the factories of GRAND RAPIDS, JAMESTOWN, CINCINNATI, ETC.," says Santa, "and you've certainly shown the value of YEARS OF EXPERIENCE in your selections. Just look at those TABLE LAMPS—my, how pretty they are and those SEWING STANDS for MOTHER, and those GREAT EAST CHAIRS for GRANDFATHER and GRANDMOTHER and those fine CEDAR CHESTS for the young lad who's going to use it for a HOPI CHEST—and what a great showing of LIBRARY TABLES, PEDESTALS, LIVING ROOM SUITES, BOOK CASES, WRITING DESKS, TEA WAGONS, RUGS, BED ROOM SUITES—and my, oh! my, there's some beautiful CHINAWARE—that will make a housewife glad.

Then the twinkling eyes of the old elf caught sight of the section where there were hundreds of excellent gifts. SANTA hasn't changed a bit—may be his whiskers are a little bit longer and maybe there are a few more Crow Feet around the clear snapping eyes, but he's the same old spirit and how he CHUCKLED when he told him that we were LAYING AWAY ANYTHING selected, laying it away in our STORE ROOM and that on the day before CHRISTMAS we would DELIVER any ARTICLE. We charge NOT A PENNY FOR THIS EXTRA SERVICE.

"It's a wonderful scheme," Santa asserted "a wonderful scheme. Why, just this of it—MOTHER can come down now before there is any rush, FATHER can drop in unbeknown to any one, JACK or JILL can come in and make some arrangements for paying on something and have it all paid for by December 24th. In fact I can't see an objectionable thing about the whole arrangement."

MACHINES CRASH HEAD-ON

One From Mt. Victory Believed Fatally Injured

TWO CHILDREN HURT

Six Rushed to Hospital in Kenton

KENTON—(Special)—Seven people were injured here early Saturday night when two automobiles collided. One of the machines, which had been traveling at a high rate of speed, crashed head on into each other a half mile south of the city on the newly completed Mt. Victory road.

Stanley Thompson, 20, automobile mechanic, Mt. Victory, lone occupant of one of the machines, was seriously injured. He was rushed to his home by Tom Long, Mt. Victory, who passed a moment after the accident.

Margie, four year old daughter of Mrs. E. Dickinson, and Mary, five year old daughter of Mrs. J. A. Dickinson, were seriously injured. The mothers, also riding in the machine, were seriously hurt.

Mrs. J. A. Korns, wife of the man who drove the car, also suffered serious injuries. Korns, a prominent Mt. Victory business man, was but slightly hurt.

POLICE OBSTRUCT ROAD

The accident occurred, it is said, when drivers of both machines attempted to beat each other past a telephone pole which lay partially obstructing the road.

The crash occurred almost parallel with the telephone pole.

Thompson, who was driving home from his work in Kenton, was thrown out of his own car by the impact and then the windshield of the Korns' machine. He suffered severe cuts about the head and neck. His skull is believed to have been fractured. He was conscious when Long drove up to the scene. He asked Long to take him home.

The members of the party in Korns' machine, which was headed towards Kenton for the evening, were rushed to the McKittick hospital here. The five were seriously injured, they will recover, attending physicians declare.

Thompson's machine was entirely demolished. Korns' automobile can be repaired, it is said.

POISONERS SOUGHT

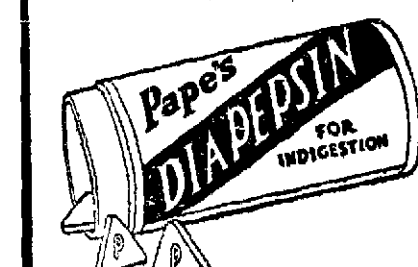

LONDON—All night long master detectives from Scotland Yard hunted London for the perpetrators of the outrage upon their chief, Sir William Horwood, who was seriously ill today from malicious administration of poison. So far no arrests have been reported. Sir William is not yet out of danger.

VETERAN WANTS NAME CLEARED

CINCINNATI—(Special)—A mistake, in the innocent belief that he was doing right, has left a stain on the Civil War record of Bruno Noble, which he is now trying to erase.

Noble is 88 and a shoemaker of Morrow, O. He has come back here to clear the efforts of county officials to clear him of a charge of desertion from the Union army before he dies.

"I enlisted in 1861 in Company H, Fourth New York Cavalry," Noble told Probate Judge William H. Lueders. "After I was wounded in battle I was released. Then I re-enlisted in Company C, 107th Pennsylvania Infantry, and served to the end of the war."

"After the grand review of Union troops at Washington I got a 15-day furlough to visit my wife here. While here I was told the war was over, so I did not return to my command to receive my honorable discharge."

"Because of that mistake I am listed as a deserter. I want to remove this stain before I die."

EVOLVE PLAN TO AID ALMA MATER

Lima Girls Win Credit in Creating Building Fund

Two Lima girls, Misses Mary and Artridge Malsen, 1317 Brice-st., are credited with the original idea for raising money to provide new buildings for their Alma Mater, the National Kindergarten and Elementary college, Chicago.

The school is at present located on Michigan Boulevard but lots have been purchased for a permanent campus in Evanston. Plans which have been adopted for the two new buildings to be erected in Evanston call for expenditure of $595,000. The student body at the college, numbering over 300 girls, was asked to help raise the necessary funds.

The Lima girls evolved a scheme, which is seldom equalled for novelty and which has been bringing a surprising amount of money, without adding a cent to the expense of the girls.

Following the idea of Miss Mary and Artridge Malsen, the 300 teachers drew up the following "price list" to gather in dimes, quarters, and half-dollars ordinarily spent in shops off the college campus. Stockings will be darned for three cents and five cents, shoes cleaned for eight and ten cents, light washing and mending done "at reasonable rates," and a "round" curl produced at 40 cents.

The price list offers:

KIDDIES' BOOKS TO RULE WEEK

Special Attention Will Be Paid Children's Literature

Women's clubs of the city will co-operate with the Lima public library during the coming week in the annual observance of "Children's Book Week."

Special attention will be devoted to literature for youngsters at practically every organization meeting during the coming seven days, the women, particularly mothers of children have announced.

Arrangements have been made at the public library for assistance to be given the clubs in the way of suggestions and programs.

Library officials will also pay special attention to the desires of children.

Teachers in public schools will be urged to devote some of their time to impressing the youngsters with the importance of good literature. Particular attention will be paid to the cultivation of a reading habit.

Movie houses have been asked to prepare programs based upon productions of known literary value.

Nothing is being left undone to assure the proper literary impression upon the young minds.

EFFICIENCY AND SAFETY MUST BE THE SLOGAN OF MOTORISTS OF THE FUTURE

ANOTHER RECORD FOR PAIGE

Makes Two Mountain Records With Car Locked

Near San Diego, Calif., rises Palomar Mountain, a constant temptation to those motorists who have an unbounded faith in the performing powers and the enduring qualities of their cars. Many a car has endeavored to win fame by climbing to the top 5,800 feet above sea level and one year ago a record for speed was set at 29 minutes and 59 2-5 seconds. In view of the fact that the road used, starting from the gate at an elevation of 915 feet, has 186 turns in 12 miles, 164 of which are the "hairpin" variety, it presents about as vicious a climb for record making as any in this country.

The record quoted stood until Saturday, October 15th, when a Paige 6-66, essayed to beat it. With newspaper writers and other competent men present as checkers, timers and observers, J. M. Sterling piloted the Paige over this tortuous road to the top and to triumph, setting a new record, his time being 28 minutes and 44 2-5 seconds, breaking the old record by more than a minute.

But this man was not the only distinction the Paige 6-66 won on this famous mountain side. With his car officially locked and sealed in high gear Mr. Sterling climbed to the top, the first time a car has ascended Palomar Mountain in high. Every condition was against the test. A strong wind hit the car at all corners and a dense fog was encountered about half way up. Mr. Sterling attributes his success to the qualities of the Paige 6-66 rather than to the fact that the day was Friday, the thirteenth.

TWO MEN KILLED WHEN EXPLOSION WRECKS BOAT

Your Auto's Electrical System

The Heart of Your Car's Electrical System

From the beginning of electric starting and lighting on automobiles, the storage battery has been and continues to be the most important part in the entire system. In recent years, this importance has been still further increased by the growing tendency to depend altogether on the battery for ignition. This was a perfectly natural development, for in order to have the car lighted when the engine was not running, one must have a battery. This in turn necessitates a generator connected with the engine, so that one can use engine power when running to keep the battery fully charged and not be compelled to have it recharged from some outside source at expense to the owner.

A good automobile battery must be one with low internal resistance. It must not increase capacity too rapidly on charge and yet must give an immense output on sudden demand. Great attention had to be paid to the mechanical structure of the battery, to the manufacture of the plates from carefully selected lead compounds pasted upon a lead frame work called a "grid," to the balancing of all elements in each cell. In other words, not only the battery as a whole, but many individual parts of the battery had to be a compromise between the advantages of size, long life, cost, etc. and the problem was to find just the right compromise.

Perhaps the greatest improvement made in the internal structure of the automobile starting and lighting battery is the development of the well-known Threaded Rubber Insulation used in Willard Batteries. This is made by piercing the rubber cross ways, that is, from the surface to surface, with nearly 200,000 little threads. This combination makes it possible to use the strongest and most durable insulating material known, because it permits the chemical action of the battery to go on thru the threads by capillary attraction, and yet does not allow the active material of the plates to come in contact—which ultimately results if the rubber is pierced with holes and it not protected by additional insulation of some other kind.

If the car owner could only realize the years of incessant labor and thought that have gone into the making of the units of the electrical system on his car, he would better understand why it deserves careful attention from him. It is amazing that the various manufacturers involved have managed to produce types of apparatus that so successfully resist the neglect which they often receive.

SUCCESS COUNTS IN BUSINESS

Dividends Attract Less Attention Than Production

That the manufacture of a successful product and the operation of a successful organization occupied the attention of big business men of both Europe and America more than the subject of dividends, was the statement of Pierre S. DuPont, president of the General Motors Corporation during a recent business visit to the Cadillac plant in Detroit.

Mr. DuPont on his trip to Detroit was accompanied by Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., Charles S. Mott, and John J. Raskoh, vice president of the General Motors Corporation; Charles F. Kettering, president of the General Motors Research Corporation, Dayton, Ohio; and by Sir Harry McGowan, General Motors director and chairman of the Nobel's Explosives Company, Ltd., London, England; and by Sir Ralph Austen, of the latter company.

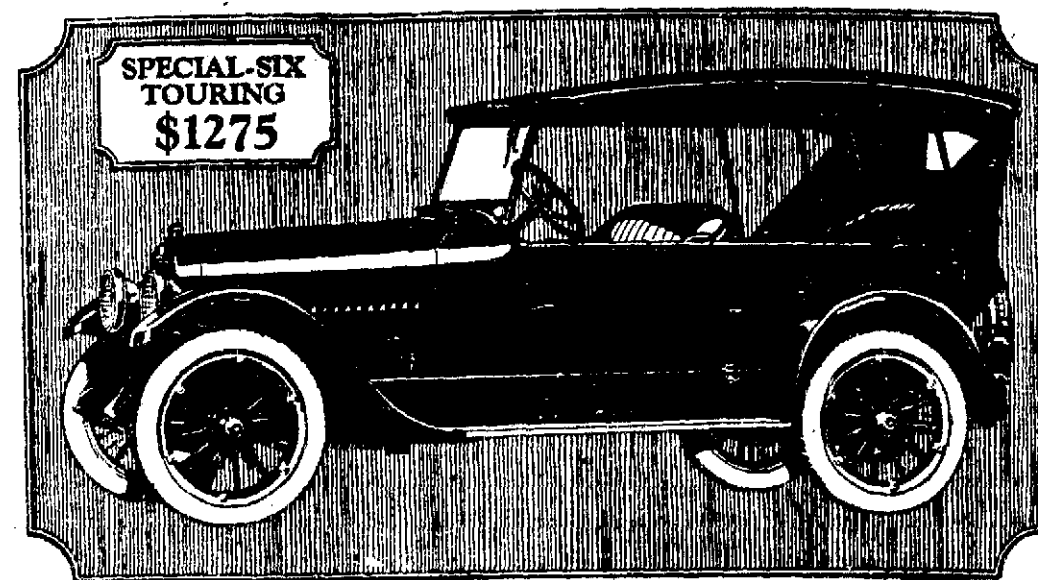

In explaining the keen interest shown by the overseas visitors in details of Cadillac manufacture and in the surroundings and working methods of the men, Mr. DuPont said:

"No institution can permanently succeed that manufactures a product that in quality is below the standard of service for which it is intended. An to succeed, an organization must be made up of successful people, people who work harmoniously together for a common end, who receive a fair income for their services and are able to live successful lives as members of their communities."

Successful products and successful organizations are the first guarantors of sound investments, and constructive business men look into these subjects long before they consider the question of immediate returns.

MOTORISTS' COLLEGE

A university course for motorists is the latest. It has been started in the extension department of Columbia University, New York. In university language it is called "automobile engineering." It is designed primarily for motor car owners.

Studebaker

At its new low price of $1275 the Studebaker Special Six Touring Car maintains Studebaker ideals of quality and performance, with added features that make it even a greater value than before.

It is known for its striking beauty just as it is for its thorough dependability. Luxurious comfort is assured by the nine-inch seat cushions of genuine leather and the long semi-elliptic springs, front and rear.

Power, flexibility and ease of handling are combined to make the Special Six the most highly regarded five-passenger car on the market.

By manufacturing complete motors, transmissions, bodies, tops, castings, forgings and stampings, middlemen's profits on such items are eliminated and one profit only is included in Studebaker prices. Highest standards of workmanship are maintained and materials are the finest the market affords.

In the Special Six Touring Car you will find such value and satisfaction as only Studebaker can offer.

The name Studebaker is your assurance of satisfaction.

CLEMENTS DRAWS HEAVY FINE

Found Guilty by Federal Jury on Liquor Charges

SENTENCED TO WORKHOUSE

Ordered to Serve Six Months for "Nuisance"

Lee Clements, hotel man, 306 1/2 S. Main-st., drew what is believed to be a record sentence in the annals of Lima liquor cases, when he faced Judge John Killitts in federal court in Toledo Friday.

Clements was found guilty on charges of transportation and possession of liquor by a federal jury after ten minutes deliberation. He was assessed a fine totaling $2,000 on the liquor charges; a $100 fine for maintaining a nuisance, carrying with it a term of six months in the work house.

In addition his automobile was confiscated by the court. Chief Thomas A. Lanker, declared Saturday that the fines and sentence were the largest ever imposed on an alleged bootlegger captured through efforts of local police.

CLEMENTS SCORED
He is of the opinion that the court verdict will be reflected in a diminution of liquor traffic in Lima. Clements was severely scored by the court.

"You have woven the rope that hung you," declared Judge Killitts. "You have assumed there was no law, but we will show you there is law."

Clements has been a frequent offender police say since the passage of the Volstead act prohibiting liquor traffic. He has been arrested repeatedly, but has usually avoided paying the penalty, they said.

He pleaded not guilty when brought into court. The jury which heard his case made short work of disposing of it.

Harry Gardner, soft drink dealer,

417 N. Central-av who pleaded guilty was fined $100 on a charge of possession and sent to the work house for 30 days.

"You can get 50 business men to sign a petition urging leniency," the court told counsel, "but it will do no good."

WOULD PUT WAR UP TO PEOPLE

Illinois Congresswoman Outlines
New Peace Plan

CHICAGO — An amendment to the constitution of the United States which would make a declaration of war impossible except by direct vote by the people, was advocated by Mrs. Winifred Mason Huck, newly elected congresswoman at large from Illinois, in an Armistice Day address here Saturday.

The address was under the auspices of the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom, provided over by Jane Adams, President.

"I realize it is impossible to legislate a world peace but my efforts in congress will be devoted chiefly toward a constructive educational plan which, I believe, will show the folly of war," Mrs. Huck said. She pointed out that if the United States should adopt a "war vote by the people" policy, European nations seeking credit could be compelled to grant a similar privilege to their people.

She did not divulge her educational plan, asserting she would retain that for presentation at congress.

SEVEN INJURED WHEN GRANDSTAND COLLAPSES

NORMAN, Okla.,—Seven persons were injured when a grandstand crowded with 15,000 spectators at the Missouri-Oklahoma football game here collapsed late Saturday. The stands with a normal capacity of 15,000 gave way mid shrieks of fright as the spectators jumped to their feet to cheer the first touchdown.

COUNTY FAIR IN 1923 IN DOUBT

Board to Meet November 25 to Decide on Future

Whether Allen-co will ever again have an annual agricultural society show is problematical, Secretary G. Dale Crumman stated Saturday night, in commenting on the result of the vote on the proposition to issue $35,000 bonds for the purchase of grounds and the building of a fair plant.

A meeting of the directors of the agricultural society will be held here Saturday, November 25, for the purpose of deciding upon a future course of action, Crumman said. In view of the fact that the lease on the Lima Driving Park Co. grounds expires in the spring members of the body are undecided what course to take.

It is not ascertained that a new lease can be obtained and even if the present grounds can be had for a longer term of years, the board is not decided whether it would be advisable.

President M. L. Rooder of the fair board, with other members, has been canvassing the situation since the electorate of Allen-co turned down the bond proposition by a total of more than 8,000 votes. It is understood that efforts will be made to obtain a new lease on the present grounds and erect necessary new buildings.

$20,000 WHISKY CARGO SEIZED BY U. S. AGENTS

NEW YORK.—Small boats and launches attempting to ply between the Bahamas "rum fleet" anchored outside the three-mile limit and the shore are being seized daily, according to local prohibition agents.

The motor boat Greyhound, alleged to have contained 200 cases of whisky worth $20,000 was seized Saturday.

Prohibition agents have estimated that 150 ships are in the "rum fleet" that plies between the New York and New Jersey coast and the Bahamas, furnishing the smaller boats with the contraband cargoes.

The Wayne Tank & Pump Company is represented in this district by L. B. Merritt, 320 West Market street. The installation of a Wayne Water Softening System in the home is the beginning of an always-present, never-failing supply of sparkling, clean soft water—softer by five to eight grains than rain water. And the process is perfectly natural throughout, so chemicals whatever being used. The Wayne Water Softening System, consisting of a small, compact steel container filled with layers of natural mineral substances, is connected directly to the incoming regular water pipes. As hard water enters, it filter thru

Not a single woman who has washed clothing or fine linens in 100% Soft Water will ever use so-called "soft rain water" again.

Their washings are snow-white and soft. The life of the materials is increased almost 50%. No chemicals are necessary to "break the water" and less time, labor and fuel are required to do the work.

We'll be glad to tell you the many other advantages from a Wayne Water Softening System and without obliging you in the least.

G. L. TERRY TALKS ABOUT PRESTO-O-LITE BATTERIES

The great majority of people don't like to talk about something they are not interested in. They won't even read about electrolyte, grids, patent insides and rear-former outsoles, so says G. L. Terry, Presto-O-Lite dealer, 111 West Elm Street.

The only angle of the battery question that seriously interests most motorists is the importance of getting one they don't have to think or talk about.

Some people have the mistaken idea that they must buy the same make of battery—year after year. If a better battery is offered you, and you would like to change, we have one to fit your car.

Perhaps you are thinking of laying up your car for the winter. If so don't forget that we will take the best of care of it, and have it ready for you next spring.

Have You Money to Rent?

Your Money

The value of money to you depends solely on what you get for it. Some people make a hundred dollars yield a good revenue; others get merely 5%. Because money is a commodity, to be bought and sold just like wheat or corn, and because the market conditions must be watched to secure the best returns, not every one is in a position to invest wisely.

DEALERS IN MONEY

We are dealers in money. We buy its use by paying interest for it, and we sell its use by discounting gilt edged mortgage paper. In this process we can invest your money where it will bring more than the usual return and guarantee both principal and interest. Call at our office for particulars. You may thereby make your money earn much more.

RED CROSS GOAL SET AT $2,000

Delphos Canvassers to Open Campaign There Monday

FIRST FOR FIVE YEARS

Success of Organization Staked on Drive

Success of future work depends entirely upon the manner in which a fund campaign by Delphos Chapter, Red Cross, is supported, Chairman W. J. Steine said in a statement Saturday. The Roll Call will open Monday morning and rushed to quick completion.

"Our expenses have been running $1,800 per year and the treasury is now down to several hundred dollars. Continuation of this great humane institution in Delphos is therefore strictly up to the citizens," Steine declared.

The drive will be the first of its kind since 1917. The Delphos Chapter has been supported by funds secured during the war period. Except for a campaign a year ago to secure funds to buy an auto for use by the Red Cross nurse, Delphos people have not been asked to contribute to a drive.

MAY EXCEED MARK
The goal has been set at $2,000, but nothing will be left returned to exceed that mark.

Canvassers will set out early Monday. A committee of six men will have charge of soliciting in the business district, while women will conduct a house-to-house canvass in the residence districts.

Two leaders in each ward will have from 15 to 18 workers under them. There will be considerable competition by the teams in the matter of surpassing each other's work. Mrs. George Gibson and Mrs. George Stalkamp will be in charge of First Ward; Mrs. George Limbach Sr. and Mrs. Frank Tegenkamp, Second Ward; Mrs. Frank Kaverman and Mrs. John Metzger, Third Ward and Mrs. E. B. Mauk and Mrs. Thomas Williams, Fourth Ward.

Yee's Enthusiasm Knew No Limit

Misplaced Armistice Day enthusiasm led to the arrest of Tom Yee, 22, Chinese laundryman, 133 E. High st., Saturday morning.

Bells were ringing, whistles blowing and bombs rending the heavens at 11 o'clock, the zero hour.

Tom abandoned massaging a color with a flat iron, grabbed a revolver and sallied forth into the street.

"Whee, Armistice Day," he shouted, pointing his firearm skyward and letting loose.

"Whoopie! Me 'Melican, celebrate!"

Another salvo of shots went flying. A police officer led Tom to the station, where, after explaining shooting real bullets were taboo, Chief T. A. Lanker released him.

NEWTON D. BAKER MAY RESIGN

Reported He Will Quit Democratic Chairmanship

CLEVELAND. — (United Press) — Newton D. Baker, former secretary of war, Saturday night declined to affirm reports that he will resign as chairman of the Cuyahoga-co Democratic executive committee within 30 days.

"I have decided not to make a statement at present," Baker said. Baker who is president of the Cleveland Chamber of Commerce, has been chairman of the county executive committee since the death of Tom L. Johnson in 1910.

He retained the office while secretary of war, altho the vice-chairman was actively in charge here.

The reported decision of Baker to retire from Party leadership followed the upset of the Democratic organization at Tuesday's election. Democrats, it is said, charge that Baker's "open shop" policy and his lukewarm support of Vic Donahay, Democratic candidate for governor, of Ohio, interfered with party success.

BEAUVAIS IS PLEASED WITH STILLMAN VERDICT

MONTREAL, Que.—Fred Beauvais, named co-respondent in the suit brought by James A. Stillman, New York banker, against his wife, "Fifi" Potter Stillman, and also charged by the wealthy banker with being the father of Mrs. Stillman's youngest child, Guy, heard Saturday for the first time of the verdict of Referee Gleason, declaring Mrs. Stillman innocent of infidelity and relieving the baby from the shadow of illegitimacy.

Beauvais, who has been for the past four months crisscrossing Ontario, arrived in Montreal Saturday and made his way immediately to the United Press bureau to hear the news over which he seemed very much pleased.

SHOT TO DEATH

COLUMBUS.—Five shots in rapid succession Saturday afternoon brought a crowd of passersby into a Parsons-av. building where they found William Jones, 30, colored, dying from bullet wounds. His assailant had fled. Jones died at the hospital without regaining consciousness.

The average woman weighs 125 pounds, walks 1 1/2 miles a day, takes 2,000 steps, carries an average weight of more than 800,000 pounds — 300 tons!

300 tons is the daily "traffic" over the "bridge" of your foot!

SUCH tremendous pressure on the foot is certain to cause strain unless the arch, the most delicate part of the foot, is properly supported as Nature planned. Most foot troubles and discomforts are caused by this strain.

The Arch Preserver Shoe gives a natural, foot length support — just like going "barefooted." There is no strain, no discomfort—because the arch can't sag.

The concealed, built-in arch bridge enables the Arch Preserver Shoe to give perfect foot health and comfort without sacrificing style. Every smart pattern and leather may be had in the Arch Preserver Shoe. You'll wear nothing else, once you've tried the Arch Preserver Shoe.
